Truman Condition Remains Critical

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The doctor attending former President Harry S. Truman expressed concern today about the heart of his patient, who is on the critical list at Research Hospital and Medical Center.

"His heart condition is not as good this morning as we had hoped it would be," Dr. Wallace Graham said in a statement released by the hospital at 10 a.m. EST.

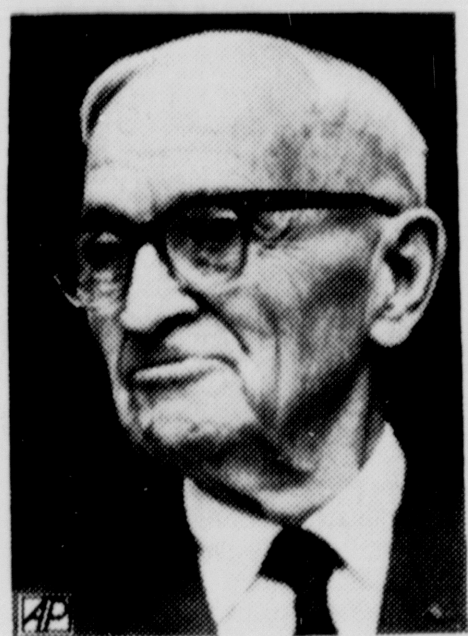

"His heart is showing signs of considerable irritability and stress....President Truman has improved in some areas but shown no improvement in others," Graham said.

The 88-year-old Truman was taken to the hospital Tuesday evening from his nearby Independence, Mo., home suffering from lung congestion and a weakened heart. He was first placed on the critical list Wednesday night.

John Drevets, hospital public relations director, said neither

Truman's wife nor daughter was at the hospital this morning.

A 7 a.m. EST briefing had listed Truman's temperature at 100.2 degrees and said it continued to fluctuate. That statement also said Truman's "pulse and blood pressure remained stable."

HARRY S. TRUMAN

The former president's temperature was not reported at 10 a.m.

Thursday, after a visit with her father, Margaret Truman Daniel described the difference between her father on Wednesday and on Thursday as "the difference between night and day."

However, doctors continue to list Truman's condition as critical and declined to speculate if, or when, he might be taken off the critical list.

The former president's longtime personal physician, Dr. Wallace Graham, said Truman was "extraordinarily weak," and was being fed intravenously. He continued to receive oxygen.

A spokesman explained that Graham's phrase "extraordinarily weak" should not be construed as an indication of a turn for the worse. He said it was Graham's way of describing Truman's overall condition.

Mrs. Daniel and Truman's wife, Bess, visited the former president nearly five hours Thursday.

"He's getting kind of contrary ... a very good indication," Mrs. Daniel said. She and her mother did not return to the hospital Thursday night.

Mrs. Daniel said the Trumans had taken a call from Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., who is in London, but otherwise were not accepting telephone calls or wires.

OEA Seeks Ferguson Act Repeal Vote

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Education Association (OEA) will seek repeal of the state's Ferguson Act, which forbids strikes by public employees, next year.

The group wants it replaced with a law providing collective bargaining in all school districts.

The move came in the form of a proposal adopted Thursday night by the OEA's annual convention of 1,200 delegates. The OEA represents 83,000 Ohio teachers.

The measure was contained in a report of the OEA's legislative committee, which contained 70 proposals.

Neither issue was debated although others were. The proposals passed in a unanimous voice vote.

The proposal also called on the Ohio General Assembly "to guarantee educators in the district or institution the right to organize and bargain collectively."

Provisions also recommended creation of a state public employee personnel board to administer public employee bargaining.

Ethiopian Skyjack Try Foiled; Seven Killed

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP) — A U.S. professor helped foil the hijacking of an airborne jetliner today, picking up an airborne jetliner today, picking up and hurling a live grenade as security guards shot and killed seven air pirates, including a woman, the government news agency said.

The professor, six other passengers and two stewardesses were wounded in the exchange of fire between security guards and the hijackers that took place shortly after an Ethiopian airliner took off from Addis Ababa.

Prof. Roderick Hilsinger, 41, of Temple University, Philadelphia, picked up the grenade dropped by a panicky hijacker and hurled it toward an empty seat in front of him. An Ethiopian passenger said. He was among the wounded.

Ten hijackers were involved, the government agency said, and three were arrested.

"He saved my life and those of many others," the passenger said.

Hilsinger of Temple University, Philadelphia, was in serious condition at the American Seventh Day Adventist Hospital in Addis Ababa, hospital sources said. He came to the Ethiopian capital to help arrange student exchanges.

Ninety-four persons were reported aboard the plane.

The identity of the hijackers was not immediately learned. But it was thought they might have been members of the separatist guerrilla movement in Eritrea, a province in northern Ethiopia. The plane had been scheduled to stop in the Eritrean capital, Asmara.

The explosion knocked out one engine and the rudder control, the government news agency said, but the aircraft made a safe landing at Addis Ababa.

A woman appeared to be the leader of the hijackers, other passengers said.

Richard Wylie, an American who was with Hilsinger, said the woman stood up shortly after the plane was airborne and, in Ethiopian, instructed the other hijackers to take positions.

Someone shouted "Hijack!" and the security guards opened fire, another passenger continued. It was at this point that one of the hijackers dropped the grenade, and Hilsinger grabbed it, the passenger said.

U.S. Bombers Step Up Viet Raids

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers kept up their saturation bombing of North Vietnamese supply routes across the demilitarized zone today, dropping another 1,000 tons of bombs in 18 hours.

It was the second day of concentrated U.S. bombing in and around the DMZ. About 2,000 tons of bombs were dropped between noon Wednesday and noon Thursday within a 10-mile radius of the North Vietnamese town of Ben Quang, just above the demarcation line.

From noon Thursday until 6 a.m. today, the B52s blasted supply caches five miles south of Ben Quang, nearby in the DMZ and targets just south of the zone above Quang Tri City.

Two more B52 missions were flown in the southern part of North Vietnam and 10 in South Vietnam. A B52 mission usually consists of three planes carrying a total of about 90 tons of bombs.

U.S. fighter-bombers flew 40 strikes against North Vietnam and 300 against targets in the South, the U.S. Command reported.

A U.S. Army light observation helicopter was shot down 12 miles southwest of Saigon Thursday, the command said, but the crew was rescued by another helicopter. One man was wounded.

The South Vietnamese command claimed that, in ground action across the country, 244 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were killed, while government losses were 16 killed and 61 wounded.

Ground fighting was reported in Quang Tri Province, where Vietnamese marines and paratroopers are trying to retake territory captured by the North Vietnamese in their offensive last spring.

The Viet Cong in a broadcast urged its forces to "maintain, defend, consolidate and constantly expand" areas under their control. Radio Liberation said the "rapid building and development of the revolutionary armed and political forces is a great and fundamental mission."

Rain Causes Havoc

Freezing rain, .33 of an inch from about 1 a.m. to 7 a.m. Friday, is blamed for 10 county auto accidents and the closing of three area schools.

Officials reported school closing at Laurelsville, Amanda-Clearcreek and Brooks Yates. Logan Elm Schools were opened an hour late because slippery roads made driving hazardous.

Sheriff's Deputies noted sleeting rain at 12:59 a.m. and reported roads were slippery by 1:02 a.m. The first accident was reported 6:54 a.m. on Route 762 west of Route 104.

A car was abandoned in the median strip of Route 23 at the Route 22 overpass 7:30 a.m. and there was a minor accident on the Circleville-Commercial Point Rd., south of Commercial Point 7:46 a.m.

Deputy Sheriff Bob Hoover was on the scene of two injury accidents about 100 yards apart on the Circleville-Lockbourne Rd., north of Ashville, 7:45 a.m.

The first accident occurred when Gary S. Sullivan, 20, 331½ Long St., Ashville, lost control of his car, drove left of center and ended up in a ditch. He was treated at Lockbourne Air Force Base Hospital for right leg and knee injuries.

Five minutes later and 100 yards north of the first accident, Laura Jo Woods, 19, 7076 Pickaway St., Ashville, demolished her 1972 model car when she slid left of center and into a ditch, flipping the car to its top.

She was admitted to Lockbourne Air Force Base Hospital for whiplash injuries and back pains. Deputy Hoover said no charges were filed as 2 to 3 inches of slush covered the road.

The department also investigated wrecks on Route 22, west of Williamsport; Route 762, east of Route 104; a half mile north of both accidents on the Circleville-Lockbourne Rd., and a non-injury accident on Route 23, south of Circleville. Sheriff's Deputies also investigated two injury accidents Thursday.

Lenora Trainer, 43, Route 2, Chillicothe, was charged with failing to maintain assured clear distance ahead by Deputy Bob Hoover after she hit the rear of a car which was stopped for a traffic signal at Route 23 and DuPont Rd. 3:20 p.m.

She was treated for left knee injuries at Berger Hospital and a passenger in her car, Dorella Bolles, 42, Route 6, Chillicothe complained of neck pains.

Driver of the stationary vehicle was Linda L. Speakman, 30, Route 1. She was treated for neck pains, as was a passenger in her car, Mary E. Jones, 42, 106½ E½ Franklin St. Both cars sustained heavy damage.

Jane Shaw, 46, Derby, was treated at Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, for a laceration to her hip and possible fractured ribs after her small car went left of center on Route 62, 6:52 p.m., and sideswiped a truck.

Deputy Bill Dountz said her car went 400 feet out of control on the roadway after the accident, and then left the road for 80 feet and ended in a ditch.

Driver of the truck was Gregory Hammond, 17, Route 2, Mt. Sterling. The truck went off the left side of the road for 120 feet, but returned to the paved surface.

ICY WONDERLAND—The sleet and freezing rain that fell during the night decorated trees and shrubbery with a silvery lining but made driving conditions extremely hazardous in Circleville and Pickaway County.

Weather

Cloudy with freezing rain today, high near 40. Thunderstorms tonight, low near 40. Cold with rain changing to snow tomorrow, high near 40. High Thursday, 32; low, 28.

Apollo Journey To Moon Proves Uneventful

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Apollo 17, a bit off course but operating smoothly, passed the midway point of its voyage to the moon today.

Astronauts Eugene A. Cernan, Ronald E. Evans and Dr. Harrison H. Schmitt still were sleeping as they passed the midway point of 132,096 miles from both earth and moon at 6:36 a.m. EST.

The spacecraft's gradually declining speed was 3,083 miles an hour.

Apollo 17's command ship, America, and lunar module, Challenger, still linked nose-to-nose, were streaking on a collision course with the moon.

But ground controllers said a small rocket thrust of about one second would change the flight path enough to bring the spacecraft into the proper position on Sunday to settle it into lunar orbit.

Mission Control said the off-course flight path was caused by an excess of rocket thrust Thursday morning when Apollo 17 was fired out of earth orbit and started its 86-hour coast to the moon.

The astronauts spent a quiet day in space Thursday and Schmitt reported that all three took sleeping pills before retiring in hopes of getting a solid eight hours of sleep.

Schmitt, who said he's "strictly a novice" at meteorology, spent much of his first day in space describing the changing weather patterns over the continents and oceans of earth, which he called "a little bit of blue in space." Looking at Houston, Schmitt accurately described the cold, rainy day experienced by the city.

"I don't know what your weather is like down there, but from here it looks like you might be overcast," he said. "Might even have a good storm going."

"Right," said a ground controller. "You're a regular weather satellite."

Schmitt did most of the talking from space Thursday giving volumes of description of the things he was seeing. But Cernan, the silver-haired Apollo 17 commander and two-time space veteran, added a little music.

"Dum-de-dum, dum, doo, de, dum," Cernan sang softly at one point.

Mission Control officials said they were delighted with how well America and Challenger, spacecraft which Cernan called "superbirds," were operating.

"The spacecraft is performing in a super fashion," said flight controller Jerry Griffin at a news conference. "I think we're in good shape."

He said an earlier problem with a warning system which was putting out false alarms seemed to have solved itself and that in any case it was only an annoyance.

Schmitt reported that all three astronauts went through minor pangs of adjustment to the space environment.

He said no one felt much like eating during their 10-hour work day Thursday.

Schmitt earlier took two aspirin, but by bedtime reported he was feeling well and said the food was tasting better.

"The only thing I've felt," he said, "is a slight headache. It could be from looking at the earth too much ... But I really feel good now."

The astronaut later added, in bedtime comments, that "none of us felt like eating (during the day), but everybody's eating better now."

Then a short while after taking the sleeping pills, Mission Control reported the crew was asleep.

Late today Cernan and Schmitt were to open a hatch and visit Challenger for the first time in space.

The astronauts will power up the lunar lander partially to check its systems. They'll also transfer from the command ship into Challenger equipment needed on the moon's surface.

Cernan and Schmitt are to guide Challenger to a craterpocked target in a lunar box canyon among ancient and rugged mountains on Monday. The landing is scheduled for 2:54 p.m. EST.

Evans will remain aboard the command ship in lunar orbit.

The two moon landers will spend 75 hours on the lunar surface. They will make three excursions in an electric car, motoring more than 20 miles.

Sailor Given 5-Year Term For Sabotage

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Seaman Appren. Jeffrey Allison has been sentenced to five years at hard labor for igniting a $7.5 million fire that crippled the aircraft carrier Forrestal.

The 19-year-old Oakland, Calif., sailor did not change expression Thursday as military judge Capt. William E. Neely found him guilty of arson, sabotage, destruction of government property and hazarding a vessel. He also was convicted of five charges of possession and distribution of the drugs LSD and mescaline.

The verdict is subject to automatic military appeal.

Neely's verdict in the case made the Forrestal fire the most costly single act of sabotage in Navy history, according to Navy sources.

Testimony during the eight-day court-martial indicated that Allison had a drug problem and could have suffered from a drug "flashback" the night of July 10 when the carrier was hit by fire in the Navy shipyard here.

Prosecutor Lt. Kenneth M. Greene, in seeking a sentence "in the neighborhood of 20 years," said the Forrestal fire and the trial of Allison had dramatized "the worst fears of the Navy of mixing drugs with shipboard life."

Allison's father Dustin — a burly, sandy-haired California highway patrolman — stared out a window, and his mother wept behind dark glasses as Greene asked Neely to make the young sailor an example to others.

Everything Goes Wrong For Bandits

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Two men who held up a Cleveland supermarket are still free today but probably have a bad case of nerves.

Pulling off the theft was easy enough for the two men who wore ski masks, but it was the aftermath that left their knees knocking.

The two men arrived at the Pick-N-Pay store shortly before it opened Thursday and forced manager Jerry Centivany to give them $1,000 from the safe. But as they fled through the store, one of the men caught his boot on an object, tearing off the two-inch heel. Police said the robbers took off their masks when they got to their car because they thought they were out of danger. However, there was a long line of traffic at the parking lot exit because of a red light.

Exasperated, the two men fired five shots at a tractor-trailer rig in front of them and escaped when the driver backed up to let them through.

Finally the robbers probably learned when they reached their destination that the $1,000 was just chicken feed because Brinks guards had picked up all the store's receipts just before the theft.

MY MINUTE MESSAGE

THIS MEANS YOU AND ME! "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23). "All we like sheep have gone astray, we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all." (Isaiah 53:6). Since we have all sinned, then we all stand guilty, by nature, before God. . . . For we have before proved both the world may become guilty before God. . . . that every mouth may be stopped, and all a Japanese roved with anger on being told that he was a sinner by an evangelist who said, "All men are sinners." The enraged man indignantly enquired, "Is his Majesty the Emperor a policeman?" Grasp a chair he proceeded to knock ideas out of the preacher's head until a policeman appeared. A man might endeavor to knock ideas out of a preacher's head, yet none can blot the truth from God's Word that ALL have sinned. When God says that "all have sinned" by the blood of Christ. — A London city missionary was speaking to a crowd of ragged children, and take it. He waited. They were all "whosoever," but only one was "whosoever believeth." A little ragged chap who came up, took it, and said, "Thank you, sir. 'What is your name?' said the missionary, 'Cecil Smithers.' 'I did not say that Cecil Smithers could have the sixpence.' 'No, sir,' said the boy, 'but you said, whosoever, and that means me.' 'God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life.' This 'whosoever' also means YOU and ME if we will come trusting in Him for salvation. Missionary G. T. County Board Adopts New School Plan

Pickaway County Board of Education, at its regular scheduled meeting last evening, approved a Special Education Plan mandated under substitute Senate Bill 405.

The plan, as presented by the superintendent, will provide speech and hearing therapy services and psychological services to be administered by the county board for the local school districts. It also provided for EMR supervision to supervise the special education classes in the county schools as well as the Circleville City School System. The Board would serve as the fiscal agent for the supervision as would administer the program.

Other programs mandated by the bill were covered by each local school district.

The board employed Mrs. Penny Miller as Speech and Hearing Therapist to serve the Logan Elm Local School District.

John Little was appointed for a four year term to serve on the Eastland Joint Vocational School Board.

The board approved membership in the Ohio School Board Association for the calendar year 1973.

Superintendent Martin reported to the board that the Pickaway County Health Department has skin tested 1461 students in the County Schools for tuberculosis. Only two out of the entire group showed a positive reaction. However, both students have been X-rayed and are negative.

The board went on record as commending the County Health Department for the services rendered to the children in the county schools.

A report was made to the board on the School Bus Drivers Safety Meeting held at the Jackson School on Nov. 10. Over 98 per cent of the bus drivers in the county were present at the meeting.

organizational meeting on Jan. 4 to elect officers for 1973.

Board members present were Wendell Evans, Nelson Jones, John Little, Nelson Stevens, and Harold Lindsey.

Cummings Bank To Affiliate With BancOhio Corporation

A proposal to affiliate with BancOhio Corporation, Columbus, has been accepted by the Board of Directors of The Cummings Bank Company, Carrollton, according to a joint announcement made by Dr. Carl A. Lincke, president of the bank, and Philip F. Searle, president of BancOhio.

Dr. Lincke explained that the affiliation proposal, which provides for an exchange of BancOhio common stock for each share of The Cummings Bank Company, must be approved by the shareholders of the bank and by the Federal Reserve Board of Governors. With such approval, Cummings Bank would become the first bank in Carroll County to affiliate with a multi-bank holding company.

On June 30, 1972 The Cummings Bank Company reported total deposits of $10,102,822 and total assets of $14,681,404. The bank, established in 1870, operates two offices in Carrollton and one in Dellroy.

The Cummings Bank Company is the second bank in the Northeastern Ohio market area currently pending affiliation with BancOhio Corporation. An announcement was made in July 1972 that BancOhio had proposed the purchase of Capital National Bank, Cleveland. BancOhio affiliates which neighbor the Carroll County bank include Akron National Bank and Trust Company, The Niles Bank Company, The First National Bank at East Palestine, The Ohio Savings and Trust Company, New Philadelphia, and The First National Bank of Cadiz.

In addition to Cummings Bank and Capital National Bank, affiliations currently pending approval are The Western Security Bank, Sandusky, The Peoples Savings Bank Company, Delta, and The Peoples National Bank of Greenfield. The proposed merger of Citizensbank, NA, Felicity, with BancOhio's Loveland affiliate, Community National Bank, is awaiting the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency.

Presently, there are 32 Ohio banks affiliated with BancOhio which reported total consolidated assets of over $2.3 billion on September 30, 1972. BancOhio is the largest multi-bank holding company in Ohio, a position the Corporation has held since its inception in 1929.

The Second National Bank of Circleville is an affiliate of BancOhio Corporation.

Sailor Given 5-Year Term For Sabotage

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Seaman Appren. Jeffrey Allison has been sentenced to five years at hard labor for igniting a $7.5 million fire that crippled the aircraft carrier Forrestal.

The 19-year-old Oakland, Calif., sailor did not change expression Thursday as military judge Capt. William E. Neely found him guilty of arson, sabotage, destruction of government property and hazarding a vessel. He also was convicted of five charges of possession and distribution of the drugs LSD and mescaline.

The verdict is subject to automatic military appeal.

Neely's verdict in the case made the Forrestal fire the most costly single act of sabotage in Navy history, according to Navy sources.

Testimony during the eight-day court-martial indicated that Allison had a drug problem and could have suffered from a drug "flashback" the night of July 10 when the carrier was hit by fire in the Navy shipyard here.

Prosecutor Lt. Kenneth M. Greene, in seeking a sentence "in the neighborhood of 20 years," said the Forrestal fire and the trial of Allison had dramatized "the worst fears of the Navy of mixing drugs with shipboard life."

Allison's father Dustin — a burly, sandy-haired California highway patrolman — stared out a window, and his mother wept behind dark glasses as Greene asked Neely to make the young sailor an example to others.

Everything Goes Wrong For Bandits

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Two men who held up a Cleveland supermarket are still free today but probably have a bad case of nerves.

Pulling off the theft was easy enough for the two men who wore ski masks, but it was the aftermath that left their knees knocking.

The two men arrived at the Pick-N-Pay store shortly before it opened Thursday and forced manager Jerry Centavny to give them $1,000 from the safe. But as they fled through the store, one of the men caught his boot on an object, tearing off the two-inch heel.

Police said the robbers took off their masks when they got to their car because they thought they were out of danger. However, there was a long line of traffic at the parking lot exit because of a red light.

Exasperated, the two men fired five shots at a tractor-trailer rig in front of them and escaped when the driver backed up to let them through.

Finally the robbers probably learned when they reached their destination that the $1,000 was just chicken feed because Brinks guards had picked up all the store's receipts just before the theft.

MY MINUTE MESSAGE

THIS MEANS YOU AND ME! For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God. (Romans 3:23). "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all." (Isaiah 53:6). Since we have all sinned, then we all stand guilty, by nature, before God. . . . For we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; . . . that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God." (Romans 3:9, 19).

A Japanese raved with anger on being told that he was a sinner by an evangelist, and said, "No, sir," said the boy, "but you said, 'whoever,' and that means me." "God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." This "whoever" also means YOU and ME if we will come trusting in Him for salvation.

County Board Adopts New School Plan

Pickaway County Board of Education, at its regular scheduled meeting last evening, approved a Special Education Plan mandated under substitute Senate Bill 405.

The plan, as presented by the superintendent, will provide speech and hearing therapy services and psychological services to be administered by the county board for the local school districts. It also provided for EMR supervision to supervise the special education classes in the county schools as well as the Circleville City School System. The Board would serve as the fiscal agent for the supervision as would administer the program.

Other programs mandated by the bill were covered by each local school district.

The board employed Mrs. Penny Miller as Speech and Hearing Therapist to serve the Logan Elm Local School District.

John Little was appointed for a four year term to serve on the Eastland Joint Vocational School Board.

The board approved membership in the Ohio School Board Association for the calendar year 1973.

Superintendent Martin reported to the board that the Pickaway County Health Department has skin tested 1461 students in the County Schools for tuberculosis. Only two out of the entire group showed a positive reaction. However, both students have been X-rayed and are negative.

The board went on record as commending the County Health Department for the services rendered to the children in the county schools.

A report was made to the board on the School Bus Drivers Safety Meeting held at the Jackson School on Nov. 10. Over 98 per cent of the bus drivers in the county were present at the meeting.

Board members present were Wendell Evans, Nelson Jones, John Little, Nelson Stevens, and Harold Lindsey.

Joe And Terry Find Sideline Jobs With Team Are Exciting

TEAM ASSIST—Manning the benches, with towels, drinks, and medical supplies are Terry Dountz, left, and Joe Burgess. Both serve as varsity team managers and Joe also works with the CHS reserve team.

Caring for the equipment of the basketball team is the job of this year's managers, Joe Burgess and Terry Dountz.

with the players and going to games on the bus."

Joe's hobbies are fishing, hunting, basketball and baseball, which is included in his future plans to become a big-league manager.

Varsity manager, Terry Dountz, 503 S. Pickaway, lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dountz, his four sisters, Becky, Teresa, Sue and Mary, and a brother, Don. He likes working with the team and especially enjoys pre-game meals.

Teen Guest Of Board At OSBA '72 Confab

Chosen as student delegate from CHS, Mike Logan attended the Annual Joint Conference and Trade Show of the Ohio School Boards Association at Veteran's Memorial Auditorium in Columbus Nov. 14-16.

Along with Dr. Robert Liggett and Forrest Brown, local board members, Logan listened to such speakers as Gov. Tom McCall of Oregon and Douglas Kiker of NBC news; participated in various dialogue sessions; and viewed new types of school equipment at the trade fair.

Logan was particularly impressed with a discussion on character education and a new inexpensive method of emphasizing "Freedom's Code" in today's classroom. He also mentioned student rights, cleaning up the environment, the six-hour school day and dress codes as some issues that were discussed.

As one of the new ideas he acquired, Logan stated, "I think a joint program with the YMCA and the Circleville schools building and sharing facilities would be an inexpensive way to benefit the whole community. I would like to see this developed, with perhaps a pool built at the high school."

"I really enjoyed myself at the conference, and I especially liked the free food samples we received," he added.

Dale learned of his job through DECA and the guidance office. After filling out an application, he went in for an interview and then was hired.

When asked how DECA helps him prepare for the future, he replied, "It reveals the many opportunities in the different vocations and gives me the needed work experience."

In his spare time, Dale enjoys watching television and sports. After graduation, he plans to work for awhile and then further his education in merchandising.

CHS Students Dance To Different Music

Roll back the rug, kick off your shoes, start the record player, and "swing your partner."

Square-dancing is the latest trend at CHS; not only in Physical education, but in the halls and other classes, students are "reeling" their way through a variety of dances.

The "Virginia Reel," "Right-Hand Star," and "Lady Go Half-Way Round" are only a few of these elementary, yet vigorous routines.

So, if you hear the sound of fiddles emanating from the gym, don't be startled. Just grab a partner, and "all join hands and circle left."

Students Debate Legalizing Drugs

By PAM SELLERS

Different aspects of the drug culture were discussed at CHS on Nov. 31 as a panel of nine students presented Mrs. Boggs' psychology classes with a drug program.

Vicki Radcliff, Pam Sellers, Diane Berrigan, Vicki Bacon, Eddy Richter, Stuart Moore and Doug Elliot each gave a report, and at the end of the review, the question of whether or not marijuana should be legalized was thrown to the class.

There was a good response to the discussion as many reasons for and against were brought forward.

A display of drugs was shown to the classes compliments of Dwight Radcliff.

Young Masters Of Chess Are In Competition

By MARCIA PLESCIA

A new addition to CHS's clubs and organizations this year is the Chess Club.

Adviser for the club is Steve McElroy, who teaches college prep English to the sophomores. The club has 12 members and is looking for more chess enthusiasts. Five members are chosen by eliminations to compete in each match.

The club belongs to the Central Ohio Chess League and plays two matches a month. Circleville played it's first contest against Hamilton Township, losing three to two. The team for this meet consisted of Paul West, Dean Gulick, Ken Yamarick, Don Young and Jeff Van Gundv.

Other schools in the league are Westland, Teays Valley, Canal Winchester, Grove City and South High School.

The next confrontation will be against Columbus South on Dec. 7 and with Westland Dec. 14.

The club is not allowed to play during school hours, so meetings are scheduled twice a month for two hours of chess competition.

McElroy hopes that the Chess Club will become a permanent organization at CHS since most of the members are sophomores and the game is a challenging one.

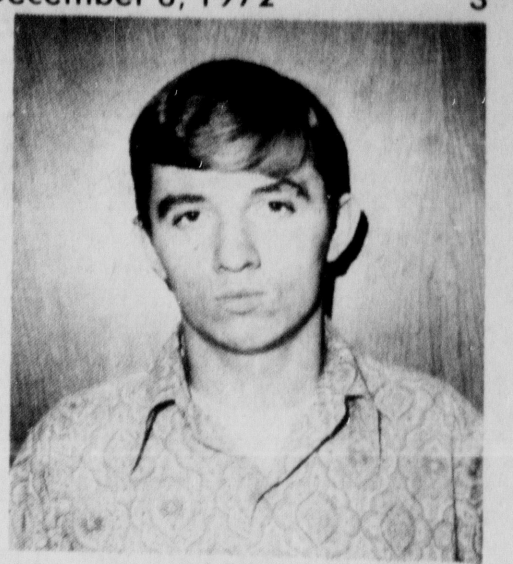

DECA Clubs Have Planning Meetings

Ways to get everyone to participate in meetings, demerits, the Christmas party to be held Dec. 15 in the CHS cafeteria, and the project of helping a needy family were discussed at a recent meeting of Jr. DECA.

Members were reminded that Dec. 9 will be collection day for their paper drive. If anyone would like their papers picked up, contact Brent Bowers at 474-5927.

Senior DECA Club held a meeting on Nov. 29.

Club members discussed the following activities: Program for the Employer and Employee banquet, projects, Christmas party and basket, student of the month, district contests, and the local businessman who comes once a month to talk to the club. Items for the school store were also included in the meeting.

Residing in Elsea Trailer Court, John Ball is the Red and Black's student of the week. John is a sophomore at CHS and he has two brothers, Jay, 17, and Jackie, 15.

John attended Springfield North, in Springfield, Ohio, before coming to CHS in September. He commented that Circleville is a little smaller than Springfield, but his change of schools has proven to be quite favorable.

"I really like the teachers, and the students are very nice," stated John. Some of his hobbies include hunting and playing basketball.

John's future is undecided, but after graduation he plans to seek employment.

Supreme Court Overturns Union Power On Fines

WASHINGTON (AP) — On an 8-1 vote the Supreme Court ruled today it is illegal for labor unions to fine members who quit during a strike and returned to their jobs.

"When a member lawfully resigns from the union its power over him ends," said Justice William O. Douglas in a case from New Hampshire. Justice Harry A. Blackmun, alone, voted to support the Textile Workers Union, AFL-CIO, in a dispute with 31 ex-members.

The 31 workers dropped out of the union during a strike at the Nashua plant of the International Paper Box Machine Co. in 1968-69.

After they returned to their jobs the union tried to fine them a day's wages for each day worked, but the National Labor Relations Board held the fines were illegal under the 1947-Taft-Hartley law.

Joe And Terry Find Sideline Jobs With Team Are Exciting

TEAM ASSIST—Manning the benches, with towels, drinks, and medical supplies are Terry Dountz, left, and Joe Burgess. Both serve as varsity team managers and Joe also works with the CHS reserve team.

By DON GOELLER
Caring for the equipment of the basketball team is the job of this year's managers, Joe Burgess and Terry Dountz.
The son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burgess Sr., 554 E. Main St., Joe resides with his parents and his brother, Jerry, and sister, Beverly.

with the players and going to games on the bus."
Joe's hobbies are fishing, hunting, basketball and baseball, which is included in his future plans to become a big-league manager.
Varsity manager, Terry Dountz, 303 S. Pickaway, lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dountz, his four sisters, Becky, Teresa, Sue and Mary, and a brother, Don. He likes working with the team and especially enjoys pre-game meals.

Teen Guest Of Board At OSBA '72 Confab

Chosen as student delegate from CHS, Mike Logan attended the Annual Joint Conference and Trade Show of the Ohio School Boards Association at Veteran's Memorial Auditorium in Columbus Nov. 14-16.
Along with Dr. Robert Liggett and Forrest Brown, local board members, Logan listened to such speakers as Gov. Tom McCall of Oregon and Douglas Kiker of NBC news; participated in various dialogue sessions; and viewed new types of school equipment at the trade fair.
Logan was particularly impressed with a discussion on character education and a new inexpensive method of emphasizing "Freedom's Code" in today's classroom. He also mentioned student rights, cleaning up the environment, the six-hour school day and dress codes as some issues that were discussed.

As one of the new ideas he acquired, Logan stated, "I think a joint program with the YMCA and the Circleville schools building and sharing facilities would be an inexpensive way to benefit the whole community. I would like to see this developed, with perhaps a pool built at the high school."
"I really enjoyed myself at the conference, and I especially liked the free food samples we received," he added.

Teen Praises On-The-Job Experience

DALE DAVIS

By PATTY ANKROM
Featured as this week's DECA student is Dale Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Davis, 410 Brown St. He has a brother Steve, 14.

Dale is presently employed as a stock boy by Robert Scranton at Bingman Drugs. Working an average of 40 hours per week, he does such duties as stocking shelves and running the register.
Dale feels his job has helped him assume responsibility. He says that the people he meets are interesting and easy to please.
Dale learned of his job through DECA and the guidance office. After filling out an application, he went in for an interview and then was hired.
When asked how DECA helps him prepare for the future, he replied, "It reveals the many opportunities in the different vocations and gives me the needed work experience."
In his spare time, Dale enjoys watching television and sports. After graduation, he plans to work for awhile and then further his education in merchandising.

Everyone Needs It

By KRIS RIED
Student support is very important to the athletic teams of any school. If there was not anyone at the football games cheering the team on, do you think the team would feel much like playing?
A poll was taken Nov. 30, here at CHS, to determine how many attend sports functions during the year. Football and basketball are high on everyone's list. A large crowd always shows up at each game, but what about Cross-Country and golf matches?
An average cross-country meet brings out mostly parents. A pitiful amount of students support these boys. What is wrong with this sport? Why can't it be equal to a football or basketball game?
Golf is not much better. The members of the golf team are about the only ones to come.

A Page Of Opinion

That Santa Shortage

A sidelight of more than passing interest in U. S. business news is the word that the supply of Santa Clauses is shorter this year than ever. It is so acute that some metropolitan department stores have been unable to hire any as Christmas attractions. A few stores have taken on elves as substitutes.

If this shortage meant only that many of the seedy characters who have done the Santa bit in recent years are bowing out of the picture, then there would be cause for rejoicing. These short-term performers, often miscast in physique, temperament and comportment for the role, and often poorly costumed as well, did violence to the traditional image of the jolly St. Nicholas.

They brought shudders to grownups who clung in sentiment to the old legend and, on occasion, aroused a kicking, beard-pulling rebellion among the small fry. Many were more suited to play the Abominable Snowman.

Their top achievement was to prove that the legitimate stage has no monopoly on hams.

But, obviously, the dearth of Santas has a much greater significance and is a cause for real concern. Stores using them have always had a king-sized headache in obtaining and presenting them, but they have borne it, not merely because of competition, but because the public wants the impersonators, miscasts or not.

A fresh supply must be found somehow. But, please, no women! No one would want a tee-hee for a ho-ho.

2 Bald Eagles Spotted In Ohio

CINCINNATI (AP)—For the first time in 25 years a pair of bald eagles has been spotted nesting in southwestern Ohio. The bird is an endangered species.

The Hamilton County park rangers said Wednesday that the rare birds are located near a lake in Miami Whitewater Forest, west of Cincinnati.

The park rangers asked the general public to keep away from the area unless accompanied by rangers. They fear the birds might be scared off.

The rangers said the total population of the birds—the national symbol of the U.S.—is now fewer than 2,000.

"You tricked me! You threw in this soap, didn't you?"

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

I had tattoos made on my chest and arm when I was sent overseas.

Now I am out of the service and engaged to be married. My girl hates the tattoos. I would go to any length to get rid of them.

Is there any operation for this? I would gladly be operated on.
MR. S.B.T., Mass.

Dear Mr. T.:

I wish your letter could be reprinted in every one of the Armed Services magazines so that thousands of young men could think twice before they impulsively submit to tattooing.

The consistency with which most adults regret their youthful impulse to be tattooed should be emphasized so that fewer young men will fall into the same trap.

Surgery, chemicals, and abrasive skin-peeling techniques have been tried in an effort to remove these telltale evidences of youthful misjudgment.

Unfortunately, the results are not consistently good. Sometimes, the scars that are left may be even more disfiguring than the tattoos themselves.

Many highly trained plastic surgeons have been reporting successful methods for disguising tattoos. An opinion from one of these in your own city might be helpful.

Do not, however, become involved with tempting, but unreliable, mail order advertisements about miracle methods of removing tattoos.

About twice a year my ears become swollen, red and itchy.

It is painful and keeps me from working. Can anything be done for this?

Mrs. B.B., Tex.

Dear Mrs. B.:

Infection and allergy are two of the most common causes for this condition.

Unfortunately, many people try to alleviate the itchy sensation with pencils, paper clips, and a wide variety of irritating "weapons."

Frequently, the thin lining of the outer ear is broken, and germs and fungus set up housekeeping.

Hair dyes, sprays, nail polish, lacquers, and eye make-up are some of the causes of eczema of the ear canal.

When the condition is present, antibiotics and cortisone ointments are remarkably effective.

It is important to try to find the offending substances responsible for these repeated episodes of outer ear infection of allergy.

Sometimes, by trial and error, the offender can be found and avoided.

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — After two years of boom conditions during which construction was begun on well over four million units, housing analysts believe the rate of new home construction is near its peak.

So great is the momentum, however, that the third straight year of at least two million housing starts is forecast for 1973 by many in the industry, and some fear that inventories might exceed demand by late in the year.

The new state of affairs is in sharp contrast to conditions that immediately preceded the boom, when housing starts fell to well under one million units a year because customers were unable to obtain moderate interest mortgages.

Since then the nation's home leaders have been inundated by billions of dollars in savings, partly the result of a self-imposed spending boycott by millions of consumers, and mortgage money now is plentiful.

The two-million unit forecast includes conventional single and multiple-family dwellings, but excludes annual production of about a half million mobile homes while the debate continues about whether they are vehicles or housing.

The surge of mobile home construction has caused even more surprise than that for conventional housing. For several years it was thought of as a substitute to be used in the absence of other housing.

As sales rose each year in the face of pessimistic forecasts, however, the mobile unit became recognized as a permanent although sometimes unwelcome addition to the landscape.

It is widely felt now that the modular home of the future — assembled from factory built units — will draw its inspiration from the mobile home. Nevertheless, it remains excluded from most housing statistics.

Causing analysts to forecast some leveling in the strong construction pace are growing disparities between demand and supply. Inventories of unsold homes are growing, and vacancy rates for apartment units in some areas are rising.

While this generally is considered to be a temporary situation — the nation is believed to need an average of about 2.5 million units a year in the 1970s — it is looked upon fearfully by some builders.

Memories of housing's repeated recessions, sometimes in the midst of an otherwise strong economy, are indelibly imprinted on the minds of builders.

One of the main reasons for year-to-year inconsistencies are fluctuations in the availability of mortgage money. Funds for lending tend to pour toward the highest return and so, when money is tight, there is little for the housing market, where a ceiling on rates exists.

In the past few years the Federal Home Loan Bank Board and other regulatory institutions have attempted to assure a more steady supply of funds to the home lenders, primarily the savings and loan associations.

Whether they have succeeded remains to be proved, although most lenders and builders expect an adequate supply of mortgage money to be available, although at slightly higher rates, through 1973.

The possible downturn they foresee is based on those growing inventories. This, says the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks, could result in "market indigestion."

Gilligan Blasts Federal Welfare Bureaucracy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John J. Gilligan called today for Ohio officials and those in other states "to see that the faceless bureaucrats stop harassing the states and begin to deal with the administration of public welfare programs on a realistic basis."

He referred, he said in a prepared statement, to a threat by the federal government to withhold from the states matching welfare funds unless the states correct overpayment problems in a program "they didn't want in the first place."

Gilligan said "this is just another instance of the federal government imposing an unworkable new program on the states, then trying to pass the blame to the states when the program doesn't work."

The governor said he planned to write members of the Ohio congressional delegation, federal officials, and his fellow governors to ask their help in bringing the welfare problems into focus.

They Won Without Help

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

On the Friday before the election I ran into a well-known Republican Senator in the Washington National Airport. Not up for re-election himself, he was off to make a last-minute campaign appearance for some colleagues. With more prophetic insight than others in his party who thought the Republicans might capture the Senate, he was furious with President Nixon for not assisting candidates for Congress. On election night, as a commentator on TV, he was far more restrained, from which I deduce that he doesn't want to be known as an angry man. But he did say that the Republicans were still faced with the job of building a party capable of sustaining their position in a country where Democrats continue to outregister their opponents.

Mr. Nixon's coattails failed because he did not care whether he had a party victory or not. But if he hopes to battle Congress in order to hold the line on spending, which is the current word from the White House, he will have to look for help from Congressmen who had to struggle through November 7 on their own. Fortunately there are a few newcomers in Congress who believe even more than Nixon in the necessity of stopping the inflation.

The American Conservative Union, which used a small "victory fund" of $110,000 with great acumen to produce a maximum effect, could not match the millions put up by the AFL-CIO's COPE (Committee on Political Education), but it did provide a sum that was very probably crucial in electing philosophical, as contrasted with "grandular," conservatives. Proving, once again, that ideas need only a little help from money to make politics.

ACU "bull's-eye" money went to the new Senator Jesse Helms of North Carolina on the basis of his nightly editorials on Raleigh's WRAL-TV. The word had gone out that Helms was a "hard liner," and hard liners seldom win in North Carolina. Since Helms was even against the 20 per cent rise in Social Security Benefits (on the ground that more than enough is now being taken out of workers' pay checks, it was surprising that he managed to defeat a liberal Democrat, Nick Galifianakis, in the most liberal East Coast Southern state.

The spending issue was surely the most telling one in Virginia, where Congressman William Scott ran for the Senate by stressing the point that he would vote with, not against, Virginia's Independent Senator Harry Byrd on conservative issues. The conservatives got still another Republican Senator in the New Mexico elections: an ACU taped endorsement of New Mexico's Pete Domenici called attention to the fact that its approved candidate was against a guaranteed annual income plan, against Federal financing of day care centers, and for a tax relief to be paid for out of a reduction in the Federal budget.

Spotted around the country were some amazing conservative Congressional district victories. A year ago Robert Huber formed a Conservative Party in Michigan; this year he ran for Congress on the Republican ticket in Michigan's 18th District. Huber's opponent, with access to labor money, outspent him three to one, but Huber won on the busing issue and on his anti-spending record in the Michigan Legislature.

In Idaho, Steve Symms was elected by waging what the ACU called "a highly ideological race." His slogan:

"Remember, I will not serve us. I will protect our rights." And in Wisconsin, in the 8th District, Harold Forelich, the State House Speaker, parlayed his local position to high taxes into a national Congressional victory. Forelich is hated by the liberals for helping to throw a group of toughs led by Father James Groppi out of the State Legislature a few years ago when the seizure of buildings was all the rage.

In Florida, L.A. ("Skip") Bafalis won a U.S. Congressional seat by reiterating his boast that he "never voted for one cent of new taxes" as a State legislator. And in Louisiana, David Treen became the first Republican elected to Congress from his state in the 20th century. The new group — Huber, Symms, Froelich, Bafalis, Treen and a few others — will make life less lonely on the Hill for Representatives Phil Crane and John Ashbrook, who have had little thanks from Nixon for upholding the Nixon line on spending.

Nixon could have more Helmses, more Hubers, and more Treens in 1974, but not if he disdains to get out and work for those who work for his more conservative domestic policies.

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Scientists are getting more worried about how long the earth can keep out the welcome mat for an increase in the human race without destroying the planet's capacity to give people a possible home of some security, plenty, grace and dignity.

The human family presently is gaining an average 1,400,000 members a week, or nearly 140 a minute.

Gangsters must envy the safety that the many layers of an astronaut's space suit provide. They are designed to stop micrometeoroid fragments traveling at 64,000 miles an hour, about 30 times the speed of a rifle bullet. But, since the suits are priced in the neighborhood of $28,000 or more each, their market still is somewhat limited.

Considering what fuel costs will be in your home this winter, don't you wish Santa Claus would stuff your Christmas stocking with a few pounds of uranium this year? One ounce of uranium — it's about the size of a golf ball — contains as much energy as 15 carloads of coal.

Quotable notables: "A psychiatrist is a man who goes to the Folies Bergere and looks at the audience." — Dr. Mervyn Stockwood.

Capital of youth: If you like to live among young people, you can hardly do better than go to Singapore. Half of its 2.2 million people are under 20 years of age, according to the National Geographic Society.

The weaker sex? The main reason that men are, in some ways, physically stronger than women is that their bodies are 40 per cent muscle, whereas a woman's body is only about 30 per cent muscle. Unfortunately for male claims of superiority, however, muscles aren't brains.

Worth remembering: "He who sacrifices his conscience to ambition burns a picture to obtain the ashes." — Chinese proverb.

Nixon Won't Slash NATO Commitment

BRUSSELS (AP) — President Nixon tells America's European allies today that he plans to keep 300,000 U.S. troops in Europe until mid-1974 — provided the Europeans do their share in their defense and unless there is an agreement with the Soviets on reduction of forces.

Nixon's message was brought to the semiannual meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization by Secretary of State William P. Rogers. It was previewed Wednesday by Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird, who predicted to newsmen that Congress would approve the President's recommendation.

Rogers and the other 14 NATO foreign ministers were to devote much of their time in their meetings today and Friday to planning for negotiations with the Russians on a mutual, balanced reduction of forces in central Europe. They are awaiting a reply from Moscow to their invitation to begin exploratory talks on Jan. 31.

U.S. officials say the NATO allies would like to see:

—A cut in the Soviet force that can be used for such political purposes as maneuvers close to the NATO borders.

—Some bar on the use of Soviet force for political ends, like the invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968.

—Reduction in the risk from "equivocal military activity," for example, by keeping troops farther away from critical borders so there is time to assess what a sudden movement means.

—Limits on the forces which either side sees as a threat, such as the heavy Soviet tank concentration in Eastern Europe and the U.S. advantage in tactical nuclear weapons.

Ohio Given Grant Share

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The National Conference of State Legislative Leaders announced Thursday seven states, including Ohio, will share a $1 million Ford Foundation grant to help modernize legislatures.

The money is to go for increased professional staff for key committees, lengthened sessions, better organization, "realistic salaries and expenses" for lawmakers, "greater openness" of proceedings, improved facilities, stricter controls over conflicts of interest and effective regulation of lobbyists.

Also participating in the three-year program which begins in 1973 will be Arizona, Colorado, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Minnesota and New Hampshire.

It will be implemented by the State Legislative Leaders Foundation, a branch of the Citizens Conference on State Legislatures.

The Ohio program will be overseen by Ralph Craft, a 30-year-old Grinnell College graduate. Craft recently coordinated a study of the Arkansas legislature for the Eagleton Institute of Politics at Rutgers University.

Voting Machines Used By Inmates

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — Two Ross County voting machines were taken to the Chillicothe Correctional Institute Thursday for use by prisoners electing members of the Inmate Council.

Election judges from neighboring counties and representatives of Concern, a group that works for rehabilitation of convicts, observed the voting.

The Inmate Council serves as a liaison between the prison population and the administration.

CCI Appointment

'Not Within Law'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Appointment of the present chief of the Chillicothe Correctional Institute is "not within the law," Atty. Gen. William J. Brown said today.

Corrections Director Bennett Cooper said he was not sure what would be done about it.

Last week, Brown was informed that the appointment of Frank Gray as Chillicothe's chief might not comply with the Ohio Revised Code. The code requires the appointee to be classified under the civil service. At the time of his appointment, Gray was not classified.

Many of the books newly arrived this week will appeal to the hobbyist. "The Fisherman's World" by Charles F. Waterman would make an excellent gift book for anyone who takes fishing seriously. From the author's viewpoint, knowledge or expertise is more important to fishing than just luck. The book concerns itself with this approach. All types of fish are discussed, from those that inhabit the mountain rivulets to the salt water ocean depths. The author, himself, has fished most of the species mentioned in the book. It is beautifully illustrated with color and black and white photographs.

"The Shell: Five Hundred Million Years of Inspired Design" by Hugh and Marguerite Sti and R. Tucker Abbott is another volume which would make a beautiful gift. The authors, Marguerite and Hugh Sti, who are founders and directors of the Sti Rare Shell Gallery of New York have traveled the world in search of shells and shell lore. The introductory text tells of the shell in history and its influence on art forms. Dr. R. Tucker Abbott of the Delaware Museum of Natural History comments on each shell which has been so beautifully photographed by photographer, H. Landshoff. If you have ever gathered shells along some sandy beach, you will enjoy browsing through this beautiful volume.

"The McCall's Book of Handicrafts" has easy-to-follow, step by step instructions for making over 240 objects for person or home. There are chapters on Batik, Candles, Ceramics, Macrame, metal foil tooling, nature crafts, paper crafts, tie-dye weaving and other crafts. Of interest to teachers, is "A Festival of Craft Activities for Elementary Teachers" by Helmar O. Leyrer.

For the home sewer, "Easy Sewing With Knits" by Judy Lawrence tells how to fit and stitch knit clothes for everyone in the family. She discusses types of knits, how to choose and fit patterns for knits. She gives general tips for making knit pants for both women and men. The final chapter gives instructions for designing your own patterns for simple basic styles.

For the serious photographer, who develops and enlarges his own pictures, two newly revised standard manuals have come in. "Developing" by C. I. and R. E. Jacobson, now in its 18th Edition, has been thoroughly revised and brought up to date, particularly in relation to color. "Enlarging" by C. I. Jacobson and L. A. Mannheim, 21st Revised Edition covers black and white as well as color enlarging from fundamental beginnings to advanced systems of exposure, color control and processing.

Other new non-fiction includes: "The Sun Dance People: The Plains Indians, Their Past and Present," written and photographed by Richard Erdoes; "Viking America: The Norse Crossings and Their Legacy" by James Robert Entlerline; "Freedom From Heart Attacks" by Drs. Benjamin F. Miller and Lawrence Galton; "Hope Is The Remedy" by Bernard Haring, C.S.S.R.; "Your Legal Rights: Making the Law Work for You" by Kenneth P. Norwick; "Modern Soybean Production" by Walter O. Scott and Samuel R. Aldrich; and "The Backpacker's Handbook" by George Sullivan.

New fiction includes: "The Odessa File" by Frederick Forsyth, author of "The Day of the Jackal," "The King's Brat: A Romantic Novel of Restoration England" by Constance Gluyas; "The Time Element and Other Stories" by John O'Hara; and "The Wake" by Steve Allen, T.V. humorist, musician and composer.

CCI Walkout Called Off; Signing Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The threat of a strike by guards at the Chillicothe Correctional Institute this weekend has ended with the scheduling of a formal ceremony today to sign a contract negotiated three weeks ago.

The American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees had threatened a walkout over the state Correction Division's failure to sign the agreement.

But Herschel Sigall, executive director of AFSCME Council 21, said state officials agreed at a meeting Thursday to sign the pact.

He said arrangements were made to hold the signing ceremony at 1:30 p.m. today in the State Personnel Department offices here with union officials from penal institutions around the state attending.

Union spokesmen said no changes have been made in the contract hammered out during three months of negotiations that ended with agreement in November.

Sigall blamed the delay in signing to a "communications problem." He said state officials had "their problems," but decided to sign "when they became convinced of the fact that we were serious."

Zion Methodist Church Setting For Marriage Vows

MR. AND MRS. JAMES LESLIE SMITH

Baskets of bronze mums and candles adorned the altar of Zion United Methodist Church in Ashville for the 2:30 p.m. Oct. 21st wedding of Miss Diane Kay Cook and Mr. James Leslie Smith. The Rev. John Currens officiated the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cook, Route 5, Circleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Smith, 222 Powell St., Ashville.

A program of music was played preceding the wedding by Miss Linda Leatherwood, organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She selected for her wedding day a formal length gown of white cascading ruffles of Chantilly lace forming the skirt and flowing softly to a cathedral train. Pearled matching lace scalloped the Sabrina neckline of the lace bodice and the long sleeves ended in bridal points over her hands. The bride's shoulder length veil of illusion was caught to a bridal bonnet of Chantilly lace trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of miniature orange and white carnations. Her only jewelry was a small cross necklace, a gift from the bridegroom.

Maid of honor, Miss Helen Spires, was in a formal length gown with a white empire bodice featuring a high ruffled neckline and sheer bishop sleeves, topping a full brown skirt. She carried a basket of bronze mums with brown streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sandy Cook, Miss Pamela Cook and Miss Ruth Coon. They were gowned identically to the honor attendant in orange and white and carried matching baskets of flowers with orange streamers.

Miss Brenda Knapp, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed as the attendants in gold and white and carried a small basket of mums. Master Allen Ramsay, a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mr. Jack Smith served his brother as best man. Ushers were Mr. Gerald Rathbun, Mr. Larry Stevens and Mr. Howard Allison.

The brides mother was attired in a brown knit dress with accents of gold and brown accessories. Mrs. Smith wore a green knit dress with accents of navy and navy blue accessories. Corsages for both mothers were of yellow roses and gold carnations.

A reception in the church basement immediately followed the ceremony. A four tiered wedding cake centered the gold lace covered bride's table. The guest tables were covered with white and decorated with gold bells and orange, brown and gold streamers.

Hostesses were Mrs. Clarence Marshall, Mrs. Leslie Cook, Miss Debbie Cook, Mrs. Judith Tussing, Mrs. Ronald Williams and Mrs. Gene Marshall.

Zion Methodist Church Setting For Marriage Vows

MR. AND MRS. JAMES LESLIE SMITH

Baskets of bronze mums and candelabra adorned the altar of Zion United Methodist Church in Ashville for the 2:30 p.m. Oct. 21st wedding of Miss Diane Kay Cook and Mr. James Leslie Smith. The Rev. John Currans officiated the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cook, Route 5, Circleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Smith, 222 Powell St., Ashville.

A program of music was played preceding the wedding by Miss Linda Leatherwood, organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She selected for her wedding day a formal length gown of white cascading ruffles of Chantilly lace forming the skirt and flowing softly to a cathedral train. Pearled matching lace scalloped the Sabrina neckline of the lace bodice and the long sleeves ended in bridal points over her hands. The bride's shoulder length veil of illusion was caught to a bridal bonnet of Chantilly lace trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of miniature orange and white carnations. Her only jewelry was a small cross necklace, a gift from the bridegroom.

Maid of honor, Miss Helen Spires, was in a formal length gown with a white empire bodice featuring a high ruffled neckline and sheer bishop sleeves, topping a full brown skirt. She carried a basket of bronze mums with brown streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Sandy Cook, Miss Pamela Cook and Miss Ruth Coon. They were gowned identically to the honor attendant in orange and white and carried matching baskets of flowers with orange streamers.

Miss Brenda Knapp, a cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed as the attendants in gold and white and carried a small basket of mums. Master Allen Ramsay, a cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Mr. Jack Smith served his brother as best man. Ushers were Mr. Gerald Rathburn, Mr. Larry Stevens and Mr. Howard Allison.

The brides mother was attired in a brown knit dress with accents of gold and brown accessories. Mrs. Smith wore a green knit dress with accents of navy and navy blue accessories. Corsages for both mothers were of yellow roses and gold carnations.

A reception in the church basement immediately followed the ceremony. A four tiered wedding cake centered the gold lace covered bride's table. The guest tables were covered with white and decorated with gold bells and orange, brown and gold streamers.

Hostesses were Mrs. Clarence Marshall, Mrs. Leslie Cook, Miss Debbie Cook, Mrs. Judith Tussing, Mrs. Ronald Williams and Mrs. Gene Marshall.

Santa and the ICE KING

by Lucrece Beale

SYNOPSIS: The Eskimos of young Oonik's village are worried because for some mysterious reason the Ice King of the North has prevented the summer from arriving on schedule. To placate the Ice King, the villagers plan a festival in his honor.

CHAPTER TWO THE FESTIVAL

"The Ice King of the North is very angry," said Miski, the wise man of the Eskimo village. "He sends frigid winds and storms of snow even though it is August and the ice on the sea should long since have melted."

"To placate the Ice King we must have a festival in his honor. Then he will surely put aside his anger and we will be able to do our summer hunting for reindeer and rabbits and duck."

"Hooray!" cried Oonik, the Eskimo boy. "I love festivals! Dancing! And singing! And eating! Oh, that will be good!"

But Oonik's mother said, "How can we have a festival? Hunting has been so poor there is scarcely any food left in the village. In my house we are down to our last seal flipper."

"It is the same with us," moaned the other women. "Our storerooms are nearly empty."

"The Ice King of the North is angry," said the Wise Man.

Oonik's father said, "Can we not have a festival without food?"

Miski shook his head. "The Ice King would be insulted if we had a festival in his honor and had no food. If we did not care to bring out our food in his honor perhaps he would not care to stop the winter winds."

Then the men said, "Very well. We will do it for the winter storms must end."

So the Eskimos returned to their igloos. The women melted snow and put their last hunks of meat in the water to stew. The men made flat drums out of wooden hoops covered with the thin inner tissues of seals.

When all was ready the villagers returned to the igloo of Miski, the wise man. They all sat on the floor of the snow house and Miski stood in the middle and sang a song to the Ice King.

He asked the Ice King to get over his anger and bring the Eskimos good weather so they could have good hunting again.

Then Miski sat down and the men began to beat on their drums with sticks made of ivory walrus tusks.

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Riley Gordon, 72, a newspaper vendor at the Hamilton County Courthouse found himself handcuffed and arrested Thursday after he told a Cincinnati policeman to stop sitting on his merchandise.

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The National Weather Service has issued a travelers advisory throughout Ohio, effective throughout Friday morning as freezing rain hampered early work-bound traffic.

Rising temperatures during the morning are expected to alleviate the icy conditions.

The service said warm moist air flowing northward from the Gulf of Mexico has produced a wide band of precipitation from the lower and middle Mississippi Valley through the Ohio Valley and into the Lower Great Lakes.

In Ohio, this precipitation took the form of freezing rain and sleet through central and southern portions of the state and snow through the northern portion. The freezing rain or sleet will be changing to rain throughout the state by late in the morning.

Surface temperatures at sunrise ranged from within a degree or two of the freezing point along the Ohio River to the middle 20s along the shore of Lake Erie. Warmer air aloft has allowed the precipitation in central and southern Ohio to fall as rain which then either freezes into sleet before reaching the ground or freezes upon contact with the cold ground. Surface temperatures are expected to warm gradually and by noon the shallow layer of cold surface air should be above the freezing point of 32 degrees.

Rain or showers should continue in Ohio tonight with a possibility of thundershowers in southern Ohio as a new storm area forms over the Middle Mississippi Valley and moves northeastward. Colder air will move back into the state as this storm area moves to the east and the rain will change to snow flurries by midday Saturday.

Reciprocal Accord

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. John Gilligan said Wednesday Ohio will sign soon a reciprocal income tax agreement with Pennsylvania which will provide a tax break for affected Buckeye State residents.

Under the agreement, taxpayers will pay a state income tax only to the state of their residence.

On getting to the top...

Take another look at these stairs. You're right, there are no landings! Risky business climbing stairs without landings. And stupid, too, since they don't go anywhere.

There are people who would sacrifice almost anything to get to the top. They talk excitedly about the ladder of success. But in their eagerness to climb, they often choose a stairway to nowhere.

One day the stone masons and cement-pourers will catch up with the structural-steel men. Then a building will enfold this stairway. It will have meaning and purpose. It will be a stairway to somewhere.

Our churches are busy building spiritual values into the structure of our society. As these spiritual values enfold man's quest for success, the man on his way to the top becomes a dedicated servant of God and the community.

Natural Gas Said Wasted By Industry

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)— Natural gas "is too valuable to waste" on such uses as steel mills and electricity generating plants, a Texas researcher says.

Ralph E. Gilchrist, exploration and production research manager for Southwest Research Institute of San Antonio, also says there is no energy shortage in the United States. It's "cheap energy" the nation is running out of.

Gilchrist, one of the last speakers addressing the International Pollution Engineering Congress which closed Wednesday more than 5,000 persons short of the 15,000 expected to attend, said coal and oil "are still very much a part of our future."

The nation has "more than 300 billion barrels of oil right under our noses, with zero finding costs," he said, reservoirs already discovered but which won't be produced "because of today's economics or technology."

Supplies of natural gas are dwindling, he said, in part because gas was burned as a waste product when the oil industry was young.

"It's good for use in the home—it's clean and inexpensive, he said, but "it's wasteful to use gas in generating plants and steel plants. Coal's just as good."

"But corporations don't want to reconvert old plants; they want to build new plants," Gilchrist said, indicating any move from gas to coal faces economic hindrances.

Planning And The Pill

DEAR ABBY: You recently published a letter from a woman who was concerned about a 14-year-old girl who wanted the Pill.

I agree with your advice that the girl obviously needed some counseling. However, I can't believe that you have not been informed about Family Planning clinics or Planned Parenthood, who offer help to any person of childbearing age without requiring legal residence or discriminating as to race, religion, national origin, maturity, or marital status. Services are given free to those who cannot pay.

In the future, please urge your readers with questions about the Pill or other contraceptives to contact their local Family Planning clinic for the professional help they need, shether it be counseling or supplies.

If more persons would use these facilities available to them, there would be more planned babies with a welcome place in this world and less unwanted babies with small chances for a happy future.

featured a twenty-six mile bath tub race and the second film was on the Yukon Territory.

It was announced that the annual Charity Newspaper Sale would be held in Ashville on Dec. 12 with the surrounding area being covered the following night.

Steve Cook asked that all members, or any persons in the community, start saving Christmas cards and stamps. He told that he had shipped thirty-five pounds of cards just recently. These cards are used for rehabilitation purposes.

It was announced that member Don Collins had returned home from the hospital.

The Ashville Pythian Sisters met in the K. P. Hall on Tuesday evening for the regular monthly meeting. Madge Baum served as Most Excellent Chief in the absence of Judy Campbell.

Thank-you notes were read from Jill Roese, Grace Reid, the Trustees of the Medina Home and Christmas Greetings were received from the Grand Temple Officers. The First Official letter from Grand Chief Garnet Reichelderfer was read.

Officers elected for the coming year were: Past Chief Judy Campbell; Most Excellent Chief Madge Baum; Excellent Senior Janet Cline; Excellent Junior Betty B. Smith; Secretary Dorothy Cook; Treasurer Jean Schiff; Manager Janet McNeal; Protector Eveline Zwyer; Trustee Betty Smith; Installing Officer Francine Peters; Musician Gladys Rush and Captains of the Degree Staff Betty J. Smith and Marilyn Sabine.

A gift exchange will follow the meeting of the next meeting on Dec. 19th. Serving on the hostess committee will be Madge Baum, Betty J. Smith, Julia Helser, Mildred Fullen, Elaine Winter, Evelyn Morrison, Judy Campbell.

Members will be serving several dinners in the near future. On Dec. 13 they will prepare the dinner for the Past Chancellor's Dinner of Palmetto Lodge; on Dec. 18 a dinner will be served to the Harrison Township Volunteer Firemen and their guests and on Dec. 28 a dinner will be served to the Ashville Community Club members and their guests.

STEADY READER: SEATTLE DEAR READER: And I can't believe that a "steady reader" has not noticed my frequent references to Planned Parenthood and Family Planning clinics. I mention them so often, I've been accused of being on their payroll!

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I had a strong experience the other evening.

We went back to the little town where we used to live because some old friends had invited us to spend Friday and Saturday with them there. On the way to these friends (we were a little early) we made a stop at the home of another couple we had known. They seemed glad to see us and asked us to stop for Sunday supper and spend the evening with them.

We stopped back and when we went to their house both their cars were in the garage and lights were on in the house, but the shades were drawn. We rang the bell and knocked on the front door, but we couldn't raise anybody. When we went around to the back door, there was a big SUCKER sticking in the latch!

We left without delay. Now what do you think of that?

STUNNED DEAR STUNNED: Unbelievable!

Yule Tree Tips Given

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— Some advice for the buying and care of Christmas trees has been offered Ohio shoppers by Natural Resources Director William Nye.

Nye suggested buying Ohio grown trees because they usually are fresher than those transported from Michigan, Canada, Wisconsin or the southern states.

A good test of the freshness of a tree, he said, is to bend its needles. "If they snap back, it's fresh," he said.

For a pleasing fragrance, he advised balsam fir and white pine.

If purchased several weeks before Christmas, a live tree should be placed in a bucket of water and stored outside in a cool place out of the wind, he said.

"From an environmental standpoint, it would be best for Ohioans to buy live balled and burlapped trees," Nye said. About 75 per cent of such trees, he said, live after being replanted.

Pruning improves the appearance and strength of the branches, and Nye said tree bases should be trimmed one inch to increase water absorption.

A solution of boric acid, borax and water should be kept in a bucket near the tree as a safety measure, he added.

INSURANCE— Hospital insurance was discussed by Howard Franz, left, president of the Central Ohio area Blue Cross, at the noon luncheon meeting of Rotary Thursday. Franz noted that hospitalization costs are advancing 10 per cent per year and estimates have been made indicating they will reach $500 per day by 1980. Of the standard expenses, the speaker said, two-thirds covers labor. Responsibility for increases in hospital costs and consequently, insurance costs lies directly with the hospital board, according to Franz. He is shown above with Dr. Carlos Alvarez. Other guests at the meeting were Howard Franz, Gertrude Seymour, Maribel Mace and Oscar Burchfield.

Federal Tax Sharing Checks On Way To Communities

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio governments can stop window shopping and get down to spending today. Federal revenue sharing checks adding up to about $200 million are on their way.

The bonanza doled out to Ohio by the federal government may well fall below the expected total. Federal officials refigured revenue sharing on a 1971 instead of a 1967 basis.

Tax effort—how heavily citizens are taxed—determines in great part the state's share. "The trouble is," a state official said, "We didn't improve in this regard in 1971 in comparison with other states."

But, if the total for Ohio hits $200 million, the state government will share $68.9 million and the counties, cities and townships will split $138 million.

Cleveland, as Ohio's largest city, gets the big gift—$14.1 million—with Cincinnati pocketing $8.5 million and Columbus $5.7 million.

Among Ohio counties it's Cuyahoga with $7.5 million, Hamilton County $3.9 million, Franklin County $5.7 million.

Some Ohio governments figured they might actually get more. Finance Director Alvin Peterjohn of Columbus said the city's share might jump to $6.5 million because of a one-half of one per cent addition to its income tax since 1967.

Merchants Concerned About Shoplifting

By DAVE AMEY

Shoplifting, according to section 2907.48 of the Ohio Revised Code, is a criminal offense punishable by a fine of not more than $300 and imprisonment for not more than 90 days. Mental Illness Defendants Win Right Of Counsel

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Persons alleged to be mentally ill must be represented by legal counsel at involuntary commitment proceedings in Probate Court.

The 8th District Court of Appeals here composed of Judges Alvin Krenzler, Jack Day and Leo Jackson handed down the ruling Wednesday. The judges said legal counsel is needed "because there may be a loss of liberty for an indefinite time" as a result of such hearings.

The court restricted its ruling to the temporary 90-day commitments and indefinite commitments. The ruling does not include short-term or emergency commitments to mental institutions.

The effect of the decision is an extension of the right of due process to Probate court appearances by alleged mental incompetents. Probate court hearings have been considered civil in nature and exempt from the past.

volving juveniles, are heard.

It used to be that shoplifting was tried under petit larceny laws. The violator had to take the merchandise from the store.

Now all that is required for conviction is either the alteration of price tags on items, or the transfer of the item to the violator's possession with intent to deprive the store of money.

Those arrested for second or subsequent offenses are subject to fines of $500 and imprisonment for at least 30 days and not more than one year.

And these laws hold true for a person caught stealing a package of gum as well as a person taking an expensive watch.

The Circleville Chamber of Commerce, concerned with shoplifting problems in area stores, especially during the Christmas rush, sponsored a shoplifting clinic in early November at Circleville High School.

Bennie Burns, Retail Merchants chairman, reported that 56 businessmen and their employees attended the session, conducted by Joe Martina, head security officer at the F.

and R. Lazarus Company, Columbus, and Sgt. Steve Rosiasky, Columbus Police Department.

But downtown retail merchants are doing much more than this to combat the problem, which is apparently more common in areas of high population concentration.

One reason for this, according to Mrs. Forrest Thomerson, Co-manager of Moore's Store on E. Main St., with her husband, is that metropolitan area stores do not know their customers.

"Circleville is about the right size for the ideal retail set-up. We know most of customers by sight, and see enough people on the streets to know they are natives. If a person enters the store who we do not recognize, a stranger, then we watch him pretty close."

She and her husband operated a similar store in Wilmington for about 10 years and noticed a much higher shoplifting rate, partially due to the fact that Wilmington is a more transient community with Wilmington College located there.

The Thomersons realize their store would appear to be an easy pray for shoplifters, big rooms stocked with merchandise. But they keep most of the small, valuable and easily portable items under tight security.

"Our guns, both handguns and rifles, are locked behind the cash register and radios are placed directly across from the service counter," she said.

In addition, the Thomersons have an audible bell which sounds when customers enter the store and a huge security fish-eye mirror over the main door where they can view most of the store area.

Butch Jewelers, W. Main St., discourages shoplifters by keeping valuable items under lock and must maintain constant surveillance of all customers in the store.

The store has many valuable items, but unlike Moore's, most are small and easily concealed in pockets.

For this reason, manager Bennie Burns keeps inexpensive merchandise on the easily-accessible display tables.

"We instruct our employees to stay on the display floor at all times and to keep their eyes open," she said. "We don't leave anything out in the open."

A good example is a portable earring display that was constantly needing to be refilled, though the sales volume was not that high.

"We encased the display in glass," she said, "and since then we can account for most of the items."

Store personnel also try to show the customer only one tray of rings or watches at a time by placing them on the glass counters.

Clothing stores don't have as much trouble with "grab and run" shoplifters, but they must maintain a constant vigil on dressing rooms.

"Most of our personnel are seasoned for this sort of thing," said Penny's manager Don Brandon, "but we still sent five employees to the clinic."

"And we still keep a sharp watch on the fitting rooms."

Sharff's, a store that specializes in women's clothing, has employees that stay with the customer-even in the fitting room at times.

"We found the best way to keep watch is to keep with them," Betty Regan, Sharff's manager, said. "We have three girls on the floor at all times, but our primary defense is low display shelves. We found that if we keep displays close to the ground, we can see over them and watch from a central cashier point."

Sharff's also required their employees to clean out fitting rooms immediately after a customer is finished.

The Chamber of Commerce is taking the approach that parents should inform their children about shoplifting laws.

In accordance, they have posters present in all member stores explaining some basic rules.

Parents are warned to set good examples by obeying all laws and discussing the importance of honesty.

LOW DISPLAYS — Mrs. Daniel Campbell of Sharff's looks at the store's central display areas to show low display areas. Cashier can stand at a central point in the middle of the store and see all the floor area, at least one of the measures used by downtown retail merchants to combat shoplifting.

Merchants Concerned About Shoplifting

By DAVE AMEY
Herald Staff Writer

Shoplifting, according to section 2907.48 of the Ohio Revised Code, is a criminal offense punishable by a fine of not more than $300 and imprisonment for not more than 90 days.

"The law was changed and not too many people are aware of it," according to Sterling Lamb, judge of Circleville Municipal Court, where all shoplifting cases, except those in-

Mental Illness Defendants Win Right Of Counsel

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Persons alleged to be mentally ill must be represented by legal counsel at involuntary commitment proceedings in Probate Court.

The 8th District Court of Appeals here composed of Judges Alvin Krenzler, Jack Day and Leo Jackson handed down the ruling Wednesday. The judges said legal counsel is needed "because there may be a loss of liberty for an indefinite time" as a result of such hearings.

The court restricted its ruling to the temporary 90-day commitments and indefinite commitments. The ruling does not include short-term or emergency commitments to mental institutions.

The effect of the decision is an extension of the right of due process to Probate court appearances by alleged mental incompetents. Probate court hearings have been considered civil in nature and exempt in the past.

volving juveniles, are heard.

It used to be that shoplifting was tried under petit larceny laws. The violator had to take the merchandise from the store.

Now all that is required for conviction is either the alteration of price tags on items, or the transfer of the item to the violator's possession with intent to deprive the store of money.

Those arrested for second or subsequent offenses are subject to fines of $500 and imprisonment for at least 30 days and not more than one year.

And these laws hold true for a person caught stealing a package of gum as well as a person taking an expensive watch.

The Circleville Chamber of Commerce, concerned with shoplifting problems in area stores, especially during the Christmas rush, sponsored a shoplifting clinic in early November at Circleville High School.

Bennie Burns, Retail Merchants chairman, reported that 56 businessmen and their employees attended the session, conducted by Joe Martina, head security officer at the F.

and R. Lazarus Company, Columbus, and Sgt. Steve Rosiasky, Columbus Police Department.

But downtown retail merchants are doing much more than this to combat the problem, which is apparently more common in areas of high population concentration.

One reason for this, according to Mrs. Forrest Thomerson, Co-manager of Moore's Store on E. Main St., with her husband, is that metropolitan area stores do not know their customers.

"Circleville is about the right size for the ideal retail set-up. We know most of customers by sight, and see enough people on the streets to know they are natives. If a person enters the store who we do not recognize, a stranger, then we watch him pretty close."

She and her husband operated a similar store in Wilmington for about 10 years and noticed a much higher shoplifting rate, partially due to the fact that Wilmington is a more transient community with Wilmington College located there.

The Thomersons realize their store would appear to be an easy pray for shoplifters, big rooms stocked with merchandise. But they keep most of the small, valuable and easily portable items under tight security.

"Our guns, both handguns and rifles, are locked behind the cash register and radios are placed directly across from the service counter," she said.

In addition, the Thomersons have an audible bell which sounds when customers enter the store and a huge security fish-eye mirror over the main door where they can view most of the store area.

Butch Jewelers, W. Main St., discourages shoplifters by keeping valuable items under lock and must maintain constant surveillance of all customers in the store.

The store has many valuable items, but unlike Moore's, most are small and easily concealed in pockets.

For this reason, manager Bennie Burns keeps inexpensive merchandise on the easily-accessible display tables.

"We instruct our employees to stay on the display floor at all times and to keep their eyes open," she said. "We don't leave anything out in the open."

A good example is a portable earring display that was constantly needing to be refilled, though the sales volume was not that high.

"We enclose the display in glass," she said, "and since then we can account for most of the items."

Store personnel also try to show the customer only one tray of rings or watches at a time by placing them on the glass counters.

Clothing stores don't have as much trouble with "grab and run" shoplifters, but they must maintain a constant vigil on dressing rooms.

"Most of our personnel are seasoned for this sort of thing," said Penny's manager Don Brandon, "but we still sent five employees to the clinic."

"And we still keep a sharp watch on the fitting rooms."

Sharff's, a store that specializes in women's clothing, has employees that stay with the customer-even in the fitting room at times.

"We found the best way to keep watch is to keep with them," Betty Regan, Sharff's manager, said. "We have three girls on the floor at all times, but our primary defense is low display shelves. We found that if we keep displays close to the ground, we can see over them and watch from a central cashier point."

Sharff's also required their employees to clean out fitting rooms immediately after a customer is finished.

The Chamber of Commerce is taking the approach that parents should inform their children about shoplifting laws.

In accordance, they have posters present in all member stores explaining some basic rules.

Parents are warned to set good examples by obeying all laws and discussing the importance of honesty.

LOW DISPLAYS — Mrs. Daniel Campbell of Sharff's looks at the store's central display areas to show low display areas. Cashier can stand at a central point in the middle of the store and see all the floor area, at least one of the measures used by downtown retail merchants to combat shoplifting.

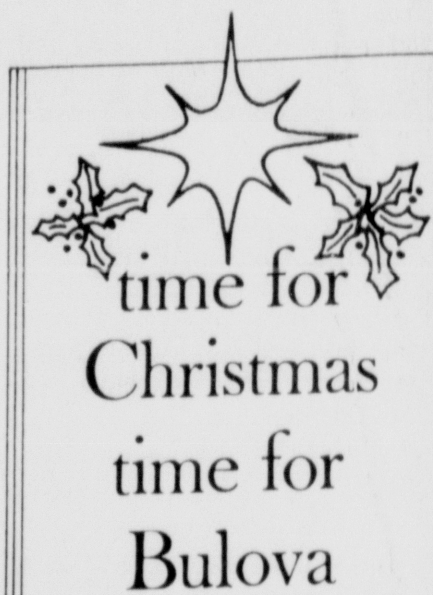

They should emphasize that going along with the crowd for fear of being called a "chicken" is the coward's way out.

If any member of the family returns home with more merchandise than he had money to buy, parents should ask for the sales slip. They are proof of purchase.

Parents should explain that if the child is with someone who is shoplifting and the child knows about it, he is also liable for arrest.

Parents should outlaw clothes swapping unless they know what's being exchanged.

And they should keep their children engaged in worthwhile activities after school and on weekends.

Willie's Dillies

By BILL McGAFFNEY
Herald Sports Editor

We made a change — We like it — And certainly hope that our readers are as pleased as we are.

Of course we are referring to the new look of the Herald which went into operation Monday.

We like the look of the paper with the larger print which is easier to read — But most of all we are excited about the quality of the pictures which will really add to the sports page.

The new setup provides us with much clearer and sharper pictures and this is a real asset in sports action shots.

We agree that one picture is worth a thousand words and will endeavor to improve the pictorial part of the sports page.

But don't get your hopes up as "Old Willie" is still going to get in on the act and our "brilliant" pieces of wisdom will continue to find their way into the columns.

We will continue to give all area schools as much coverage and publicity as possible and the new art will certainly help us along these lines.

Have to run now as its time to change film in our "Brownie".

Our "fearless forecast — Tigers will claw the Indians . . . We like the Braves in the battle of the tribes . . . Vikings will chase the Rangers off the range . . . Mustangs will try to get untracked and find the winning trail against Unioto and Bishop Flaget . . . Browns will nip the Bengals.

Until next time, have a nice day—be a good sport.

Shrine Bowl Matches Top Ohio Players

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "It's just great for Ohio college football," bubbled Jack Murphy.

Murphy talked about the first annual All-Ohio Shrine Bowl football game matching the state's top college seniors Saturday at 10 a.m. in Ohio Stadium.

The personable Toledo mentor will coach the East AllStars, while the West coaching duties are being handled by Ohio Wesleyan's Jack Fouts.

"We've got healthy bodies and we're helping ones that don't. And a lot of these kids wouldn't get a chance to play in any other bowls," Murphy continued.

Proceeds from the game, expected to attract about 30,000 to Ohio State's giant horseshoe, go to the Burns Institute in Cincinnati, a Shrine hospital for crippled children.

Murphy and Fouts wound up a week of practice today and vowed to keep their offenses simple with plenty of passing.

The Toledo coach figures, "The team that breaks the big play will win it. They're a lot of athletes in the game capable of making the big play offensively and defensively."

Fouts has other thoughts.

"The team that plays great defense will have an advantage," he said. "And it will be a case of the breaks, too."

Fouts has settled on Ohio University's Dave Juenger as his starting quarterback with Ed Exler of Denison, Steve Blackburn of Findlay and Denny Whitehead of Dayton also in the West backfield.

Murphy will open with Ron Jaworski of Youngstown State or Ed Casey of Baldwin-Wallace at quarterback. The East running backs will be Joe Schwartz of Toledo, Dave Hayes of Muskingum and Mark Pruesser of Mount Union.

All of Ohio's major schools are represented except bowlbound Ohio State and Kent State.

The East team:

Running backs Pruesser, Schwartz and Hayes, quarterbacks Casey and Jaworski, wide receivers Bob Ferranti of Youngstown, Willie Avery of Baldwin-Wallace and Jeff Calabrese of Toledo, tight end Randy Blake of Marietta, tackles Russ Oechsle of Wooster, Denny Halhaus of Cincinnati, Carl Richards of Akron and John Groff of Baldwin-Wallace and center Jeff Printy of Ashland.

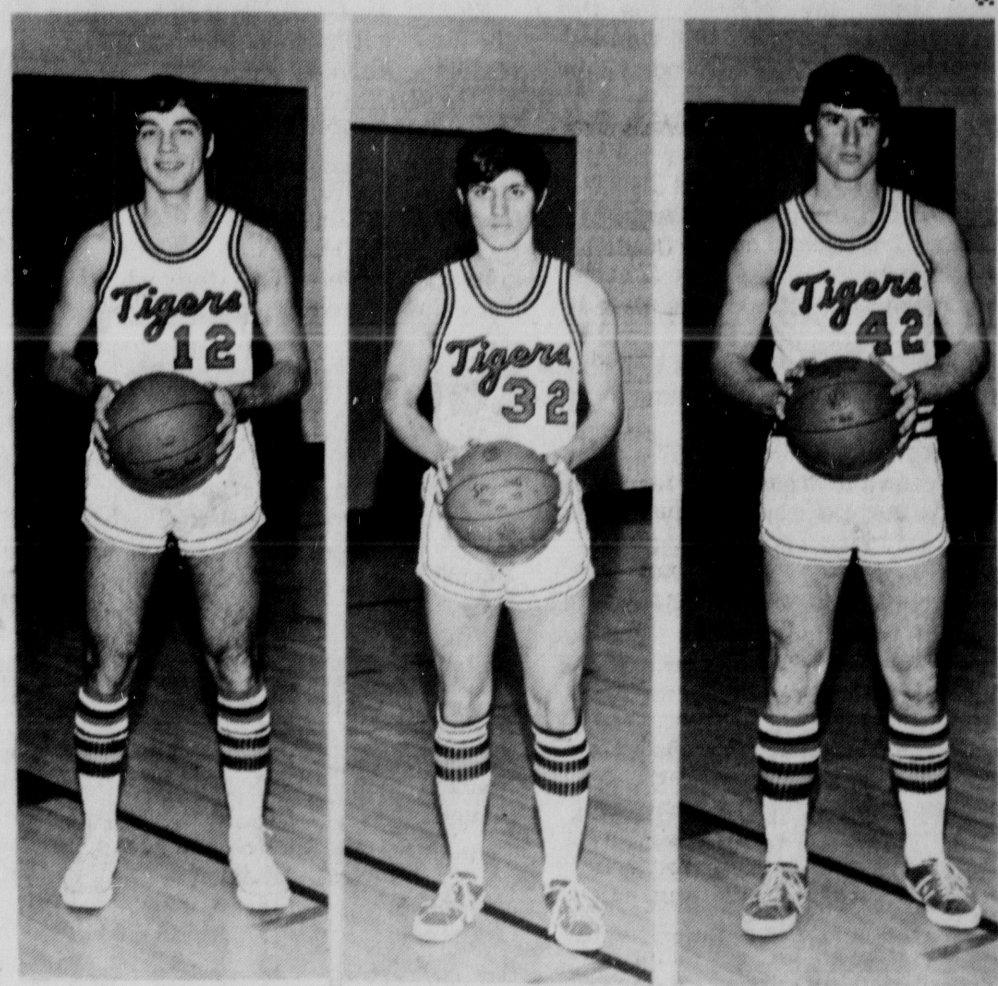

Deep backs Steve Traylor of Otterbein, Bill Hunter of Cincinnati, Dan Handel of Kenyon and Bud Boughton of Ashland, linebackers Ed Bolis of Cincinnati, Denny Blake of Akron, Bob Morehouse of Wooster and Doug Thomson of Otterbein and defensive linemen Dave Lucas of Ashland and Steve Donahue and Willie Duke of Toledo.

The West team:

Running backs Exler, Blackburn and Whitehead, quarterbacks Steve Williams of Miami and Juenger, wide receivers Larry Nickels of Dayton and Ed Crabtree of Wilmington, tight end Jim Hart of Ohio Wesleyan, tackles John Czerwinski of Bowling Green and Dan Willing of Miami, guards Don Caldwell of Ohio University and Paul Mollman of Miami and center Mike James of Heidelberg.

Defensive linemen John Saccomen of Miami, Mike Moran of Xavier, Lynn Sherman of Capital, Steve Kovacs of Miami, Steve Sommer of Bluffton and Earl Hargrove of Bowling Green, linebackers Ron Klawitter of Wittenberg and Jack Burkhardt of Dayton and defensive backs Mike Hittle, Defiance, Steve Croghan of Ohio Northern, Don Walker of Central State and Dwight Mosley of Dayton.

Meet The Tigers

Glen Gillespie (12), Steve Allen (32) and Tim Burns (42) are senior members of the Circleville High School basketball team. Glen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Gillespie, 432 Holiday Lane, Steve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen, Dunkle Road, and Tim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Burns, 107 Parkview Ave.

Tiger Matmen Open Season Saturday

Circleville will have nine letterman, including five South Central Ohio League wrestling champions, ready for action Saturday night when the Tigers open the mat season at Reynoldsburg.

Other members of the Tiger mat squad are: Ben McDaniels and Barry Marshall, 105-pound; Dave LeMay, 119-pound; Don Seyfang and Tom Hamilton, 126-pound; Rob Gans, 132-pound; Herb Sturgell and Ted Oberly, 138-pound; Bob Brandon and Dave Resler, 145-pound; Rick Sampsill, John McCoy and Rance Wolfe, 155-pound; Bob Featherolf, 167-pound; Dave Bond and Tim Wilkinson, 185-pound; and Scott Bowman, heavyweight.

Lost from last years SCHOL championship team, by graduation, are Jeff Harr and Pete McDaniels, both league champions, and the Tigers 185-pound state champion, Mark Davey.

But this year's edition of the Tigers holds more titles than a used car dealer having a bad year.

Heading the list of crown wearers are: Webb, second in the state last year and two SCOL championships; Frericks, two time SCOL and two years in state meet; Mogan, SCOL and fourth in district; Payne, SCOL and third in district; and Watters, 105-pound SCOL and third in district.

Starting berths will be determined by a series of wrestle-offs among the contenders.

The Tigers have once again failed to come with a 98-pound matman and will have to forfeit points in this division.

"We will be strong in some of the classes but the key to our season will be how fast some of the inexperienced boys come along," Coach Bell commented.

"Our squad got off to a late start as facilities were not available due to other school activities but we have been working hard and hope to be ready for the season opener Saturday," Bell stated.

Scouting reports around the league show that Miami Trace could be a strong contender and Wilmington has some outstanding individuals.

But the Tigers are defending champions and have the personnel and pride to keep things that way.

With a few good breaks along the way, there just might be some Red and Black grapplers back on the St. John mats during the state meet.

Here is the Circleville varsity schedule:

Dec. 9.—At Reynoldsburg, 7:30 p.m.
Dec. 16.—At Walnut Ridge Tournament, noon.

5 Bowl Contests Headline Weekend Football Action

With the big boys waiting in the wings for their year-end performances, five Bowl games involving college division powers headline Saturday's college football program.

There's the Grantland Rice Bowl at Baton Rouge, La., the Pioneer Bowl at Wichita Falls, Tex., the Boardwalk Bowl at Atlantic City, N.J., the Camellia Bowl at Sacramento, Calif., and the NAIA championship playoff at Commerce, Tex.

There'll be a game in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., where the only major game of the day is scheduled. Florida, 5-4-1, entertains the Atlantic Coast Conference champion North Carolina Tar Heels, 9-1, in the regular season windup for both clubs.

Running back Nat Moore of Florida needs only 37 yards to set a season rushing record for the Gators and his teammates have vowed to get him running room.

Unbeaten Louisiana Tech, 11-0, second to Delaware in the final Associated Press college division poll, tangles with Tennessee Tech, 10-1, for the NCAA Mideast title in the Rice Bowl.

The Pioneer Bowl pairs Drake, 7-4, against Tennessee State, 9-1. The Boardwalk Bowl, which will be played indoors, pits Massachusetts, 8-2, against California-Davis, 6-1-2.

It will be the North Dakota Sioux, 9-1, against Cal Poly of San Luis Obispo, 8-0-1, in the Camellia Bowl and East Texas State, 9-2, vs. Carson-Newman, 9-1-1, in the NAIA Division One championship. Missouri Southern beat Northern Iowa 21-14 last Saturday in the NAIA Division Two final.

Press Maravich Marks Win As Appalachian State Pilot

Remember Press Maravich? The former coach at Louisiana State who guided his son, Pistol Pete Maravich, to national fame and fortune is on the way back to prominence in college basketball.

Now coach at Appalachian State, Press Maravich directed the Mountaineers to a 67-65 victory over Richmond Thursday night in their first official game in the Southern Conference.

It was a historic career milestone for Press, who resigned as LSU coach after his son became a pro star with the Atlanta Hawks in the NBA.

Appalachian joined the Southern Conference last year, but did not compete for the championship.

Brigham Young and Memphis State also started on the road back and Arizona upset Southern California in other Thursday developments.

BYU rebounded from a 66-64 upset at the hands of Santa Clara to whip 18th-ranked Michigan 83-77. Memphis State, No. 11 in the Associated Press rankings, bounced back after a surprise defeat by LSU to humble South Florida 87-73. Arizona surprised the 17 ranked Trojans 71-69 on two free throws by Jim Rappis with 11 seconds left.

Princeton edged Rutgers 51-47 and Manhattan took St. Peters 96-78 in the television audience and an expected Riverfront Stadium capacity crowd of about 60,000.

"I just told our people to forget about the playoffs and think about the Cleveland Browns," says the 64-year-old Brown, who molded the Cleveland team into a football dynasty before helping form the Bengal club four years ago.

"We're preparing just normally," he says, although he admits, "I guess there is a special feeling for me about playing the Cleveland Browns."

The Bengals are coming off a 13-10 victory over the New York Giants, while Cleveland still is smarting from a 30-0 blasting at the hands of the AFC Central Division leader, Pittsburgh.

Browns Coach Nick Skorich says a lack of consistency brought about last Sunday's debacle, "but I don't think our players will have any trouble getting up for Cincinnati."

The two squads present similar faces, both utilizing young quarterbacks and both relying on a power runner to carry much of the offensive burden.

Third-year man Mike Phipps directs the Cleveland attack, while second-year man Ken Anderson guides the Bengals. Both have thrown 264 passes, Phipps completing 127 for 1,687 yards and Anderson connecting an 145 for 1,636 yards.

Veteran Leroy Kelly has 691 yards on 194 rushes for the Browns, while Essex Johnson has paced the Bengals with 722 yards in 205 carries.

Bengals Look Ahead To Browns Clash

CINCINNATI (AP) — Willy old Paul Brown has a theory about football that says "to look back is to err."

"After it's done," he says, "there's no use worrying about it."

Thus the 27-6 drubbing inflicted on Brown's Cincinnati Bengals by the Cleveland Browns earlier this season isn't on his mind, Brown says, as the Bengals prepare to host the Browns Saturday in an important National Football League struggle.

The Bengals, 7-5, must win to retain a chance at a wild card playoff berth from the American Conference. The Browns, 8-4, can clinch the berth with a victory.

The sixth renewal of what has become a fierce cross-state rivalry begins at 1 p.m. before a national

Meet The Tigers

Glen Gillespie (12), Steve Allen (32) and Tim Burns (42) are senior members of the Circleville High School basketball team. Glen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Gillespie, 432 Holiday Lane, Steve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen, Dunkle Road, and Tim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Burns, 107 Parkview Ave.

Hawks Stop Bulls, 94-89

"He's the guy who creates the action," says Atlanta Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons. And Pete Maravich surely created some action for the Hawks against the Chicago Bulls.

Maravich scored eight straight points to tie the Bulls at 86-86 and send the National Basketball Association game into overtime Thursday night. He then scored five of the Hawks' eight extra-period points as they won 94-89.

Maravich finished with 39 points. Bob Love topped Chicago with 26. In the only other NBA game, Neal Walk scored 27 points and Charlie Scot 25 as Phoenix snapped a three-game losing streak by scoring a 117-102 victory at Pittsburgh over the Philadelphia 76ers, who were led by Kevin Loughery with 25.

Virginia edged Indiana 132-129 and Denver walloped San Diego 108-89 in the only American Basketball Association action.

"It just happened that way," said Julius Erving after he scored a club record 24 points in the third period as Virginia outscored Indiana 39-31 and built a 109-98 lead.

Erving also collected 17 other points, three of them on an off-balance field goal that gave the Squires a 129-124 lead with 1:58 left in the game.

Tiger Matmen Open Season Saturday

Circleville will have nine letterman, including five South Central Ohio League wrestling champions, ready for action Saturday night when the Tigers open the mat season at Reynoldsburg.

Other members of the Tiger mat squad are: Ben McDaniels and Barry Marshall, 105-pound; Dave LeMay, 119-pound; Don Seyfang and Tom Hamilton, 126-pound; Rob Gans, 132-pound; Herb Sturgell and Ted Oberly, 138-pound; Bob Brandon and Dave Resler, 145-pound; Rick Sampson, John McCoy and Rance Wolfe, 155-pound; Bob Featherolf, 167-pound; Dave Bond and Tim Wilkinson, 185-pound; and Scott Bowman, heavyweight.

Lost from last years SCHOL championship team, by graduation, are Jeff Harr and Pete McDaniels, both league champions, and the Tigers 185-pound state champion, Mark Davey.

But this year's edition of the Tigers holds more titles than a used car dealer having a bad year.

Heading the list of crown wearers are: Webb, second in the state last year and two SCOL championships; Frericks, two time SCOL and two years in state meet; Mogan, SCOL and fourth in district; Payne, SCOL and third in district; and Watters, 105-pound SCOL and third in district.

Starting berths will be determined by a series of wrestle-offs among the contenders.

The Tigers have once again failed to come with a 98-pound matman and will have to forfeit points in this division.

"We will be strong in some of the classes but the key to our season will be how fast some of the inexperienced boys come along," Coach Bell commented.

"Our squad got off to a late start as facilities were not available due to other school activities but we have been working hard and hope to be ready for the season opener Saturday," Bell stated.

Scouting reports around the league show that Miami Trace could be a strong contender and Wilmington has some outstanding individuals.

But the Tigers are defending champions and have the personnel and pride to keep things that way.

With a few good breaks along the way, there just might be some Red and Black grapplers back on the St. John mats during the state meet.

5 Bowl Contests Headline Weekend Football Action

With the big boys waiting in the wings for their year-end performances, five Bowl games involving college division powers headline Saturday's college football program.

There's the Grantland Rice Bowl at Baton Rouge, La., the Pioneer Bowl at Wichita Falls, Tex., the Boardwalk Bowl at Atlantic City, N.J., the Camellia Bowl at Sacramento, Calif., and the NAIA championship playoff at Commerce, Tex.

There'll be a game in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., where the only major game of the day is scheduled. Florida, 5-4-1, entertains the Atlantic Coast Conference champion North Carolina Tar Heels, 9-1, in the regular season windup for both clubs.

Running back Nat Moore of Florida needs only 37 yards to set a season rushing record for the Gators and his teammates have vowed to get him running room.

Unbeaten Louisiana Tech, 11-0, second to Delaware in the final Associated Press college division poll, tangles with Tennessee Tech, 10-1, for the NCAA Mideast title in the Rice Bowl.

The Pioneer Bowl pairs Drake, 7-4, against Tennessee State, 9-1. The Boardwalk Bowl, which will be played indoors, pits Massachusetts, 8-2, against California-Davis, 6-1-2.

It will be the North Dakota Sioux, 9-1, against Cal Poly of San Luis Obispo, 8-0-1, in the Camellia Bowl and East Texas State, 9-2, vs. Carson-Newman, 9-1-1, in the NAIA Division One championship. Missouri Southern beat Northern Iowa 21-14 last Saturday in the NAIA Division Two final.

Press Maravich Marks Win As Appalachian State Pilot

Remember Press Maravich? The former coach at Louisiana State who guided his son, Pistol Pete Maravich, to national fame and fortune is on the way back to prominence in college basketball.

Now coach at Appalachian State, Press Maravich directed the Mountaineers to a 67-65 victory over Richmond Thursday night in their first official game in the Southern Conference.

It was a historic career milestone for Press, who resigned as LSU coach after his son became a pro star with the Atlanta Hawks in the NBA. Appalachian joined the Southern Conference last year, but did not compete for the championship. Brigham Young and Memphis State also started on the road back and Arizona upset Southern California in other Thursday developments.

BYU rebounded from a 66-64 upset at the hands of Santa Clara to whip 18th-ranked Michigan 83-77. Memphis State, No. 11 in the Associated Press rankings, bounced back after a surprise defeat by LSU to humble South Florida 87-73. Arizona surprised the 17th-ranked Trojans 71-69 on two free throws by Jim Rappis with 11 seconds left.

Princeton edged Rutgers 51-47 and Manhattan took St. Peters 96-78 in the first doubleheader of the season at New York's Madison Square Garden. Elsewhere, Kansas beat Murray State 69-63, Weber State beat Utah 81-70, St. Mary's of California humbled Seton Hall 83-78, Oregon downed Montana State 83-63 and Northeast Louisiana pulled out a 73-72 squeaker over LSU-New Orleans on a 10-foot jumper by Jesse Burnette with four seconds left.

Unbeaten Oklahoma made it five straight by beating Stetson 84-76 on 29 points from Alvin Adams the Sooners' 6-10 freshman star. In other games it was Harvard over Springfield 122-98, Auburn over Eastern Illinois 82-75 and Wisconsin-Milwaukee over Bradley 74-72.

Bengals Look Ahead To Browns Clash

CINCINNATI (AP) — Wily old Paul Brown has a theory about football that says "to look back is to err."

"After it's done," he says, "there's no use worrying about it."

Thus the 27-6 drubbing inflicted on Brown's Cincinnati Bengals by the Cleveland Browns earlier this season isn't on his mind, Brown says, as the Bengals prepare to host the Browns Saturday in an important National Football League struggle.

The Bengals, 7-5, must win to retain a chance at a wild card playoff berth from the American Conference. The Browns, 8-4, can clinch the berth with a victory.

The sixth renewal of what has become a fierce cross-state rivalry begins at 1 p.m. under a national television audience and an expected Riverfront Stadium capacity crowd of about 60,000.

"I just told our people to forget about the playoffs and think about the Cleveland Browns," says the 64-year-old Brown, who molded the Cleveland team into a football dynasty before helping form the Bengal club four years ago.

"We're preparing just normally," he says, although he admits, "I guess there is a special feeling for me about playing the Cleveland Browns."

The Bengals are coming off a 13-10 victory over the New York Giants, while Cleveland still is smarting from a 30-0 blasting at the hands of the AFC Central Division leader, Pittsburgh. Browns Coach Nick Skorich says a lack of consistency brought about last Sunday's debacle, "but I don't think our players will have any trouble getting up for Cincinnati."

The two squads present similar faces, both utilizing young quarterbacks and both relying on a power runner to carry much of the offensive burden.

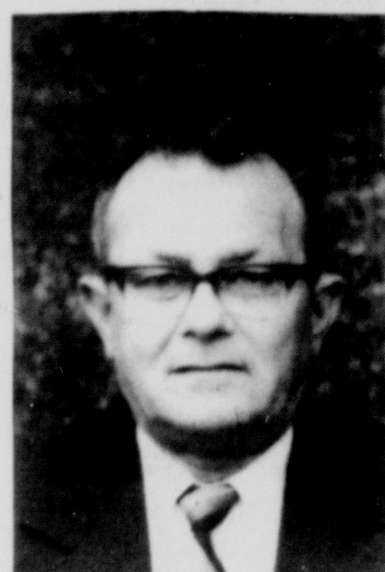

Third-year man Mike Phipps directs the Cleveland attack, while second-year man Ken Anderson guides the Bengals. Both have thrown 264 passes, Phipps completing 127 for 1,687 yards and Anderson connecting an 145 for 1,636 yards.

Veteran Leroy Kelly has 691 yards on 194 rushes for the Browns, while Essex Johnson has paced the Bengals with 722 yards in 205 carries.

Grid Picker Sees Cowboy Victory

NEW YORK (AP) — Dallas will get revenge.

Pushing our National Football League luck, the pick is for the Cowboys to spill hot-handed Washington 24-20 Saturday and regain a slice of pride.

The NFL has a fistful of showdowns in the next-to-last weekend of the regular season. Atop the list are the Minnesota Green Bay and Atlanta-San Francisco matchups in the National Conference.

But, blood will boil no hotter than at Texas Stadium where the world champion Cowboys gnaw at a Redskins team that hijacked Dallas' thunder in the NFC East.

Washington, 1-1, has locked up the division crown to break a six-year grip by Dallas and this one simply means more to the 10-gallon hat boys.

For one thing, Dallas (8-3) can assure itself of the NFC "wild card" spot in the playoffs that open Dec. 23.

Back-to-back prediction weeks of 12-and-1 pumped the season percentage to a happy .764 with 78 right, 24 wrong.

Here are the other 12 calls this week:

BROWNS 17, BENGALS 10—Cleveland needs it, if Oakland whips the New York Jets, to tuck away the American Conference "wild card" spot. Cincinnati dropped their first meeting 27-6 and have the Bengals improved that much?

FORTY-NINERS 28, FALCONS 17—Something about that Atlanta bunch in the big ones. They're so close, but haven't yet proven they can get over the clutch hump.

VIKINGS 17, PACKERS 13—Keeping Green Bay for clinching the NFC Central and pulling Minnesota into a possible three-way deadlock that includes Detroit.

STEELERS 38, OILERS 21—Pittsburgh isn't looking back. Anyway, it doesn't matter which way they're looking against Houston.

DOLPHINS 34, GIANTS 21—Thirteenth straight for unbeaten Miami with a chance Bob Griese may get a late chance to test that mended ankle.

RAMS 17, CARDS 7—Los Angeles has new life in the NFC West and they have to keep pace with the 49er-Falcon winner.

Reshuffled OSU Cagers Meet Missouri

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fred Taylor, unhappy with the play of his Ohio State basketball team so far, will start burly sophomore forward Bill

Andreas against unbeaten Missouri Saturday night.

"We want to try to run and he'll give us more size and strength," Taylor said of the 6-foot-7, 215-pound Andreas. He replaces 6-3 Bob Siekmann at forward.

"We've played about 30 minutes in three games," Taylor said about his squad, 2-1. "We're going through the motions, and we're much too individualistic."

The contest is the feature of a 26-game schedule for Ohio colleges Saturday.

Missouri has ripped by four straight opponents at home, including Purdue 84-75 Wednesday night. John Brown, a 6-7 senior who scored a career high 35 points against the Boilermakers, impresses Taylor.

"For his size," Taylor said of Brown, "he's a real piece of work inside. He's just a super player."

Brown averaged nearly 22 points in leading the Tigers to their best record in history, 21-6, last winter before

7 Big Ten Cage Teams See Action

With highly ranked Minnesota idle, the spotlight will focus on host Indiana's tangle with eighth-ranked Kentucky as seven Big Ten basketball teams see action Saturday.

In other games, Iowa 2-0 is at Kansas; Illinois 2-0 visits Detroit; Michigan State 1-1 invades South Carolina; Missouri is at Ohio State (2-1); Ohio University appears at Northwestern 0-2, and Michigan winds up a two-day road trip at Dayton.

Michigan took a 2-0 mark against Brigham Young tonight.

Minnesota 3-0, No. 4 in the AP's national poll, marks time until visiting Chicago Loyola a week from Saturday night.

While the consensus is that defending champion Minnesota, Ohio State and Michigan will be closely bunched contenders in the conference race starting in January, Indiana's still unbeaten Hoosiers also could challenge.

Opening with a 97-76 romp over Harvard, Indiana polished off Kansas 72-55 Tuesday night to confront Kentucky with a 2-0 record before the first collegiate sellout for Indiana's 16,668-seat Assembly Hall tomorrow.

Wildcat Juniors Split Cage Tilts

Laurelville's junior cagers split a pair of contests with Winton County Thursday.

The eighth grade Wildcats won 38-35 after trailing 11-10 at the end of the first quarter, 19-16 at halftime and 29-27 at the conclusion of the third canto. It was a strong rebounding effort in the second half that pulled the game out of the fire.

Eric Maxson tallied 10 points and Terry Holzschuh eight to pace Laurelville. Gill hooped 22 markers for Vinton County. The eighth graders are now 2-0.

Laurelville's seventh grade squad went down, 47-28, to the Vinton cagers. The seventh grade has a 1-1 mark.

Todd Young had nine points and Mark Unger eight to lead Laurelville. Brooks netted 12 for Vinton County.

Both Laurelville squads will return to action Thursday at Stoutsville.

making the Olympic squad.

A broken foot in practice, however, kept the 220-pound Brown from actually playing in the Olympics.

Ohio State assistant Coach Bob Burkholder saw the Tigers beat Ohio University, recalling, "They're very active, quick and solid."

Four holdover starters are joined in the Missouri lineup by 6-5 forward Felix Jerman, the No. 1 scorer and rebounder on the freshman team a year ago. The veterans are 6-5 forward Al Aberhard, guards Orv Salmon, a 6-

New England Whalers Defeat Ottawa, 4-2

The New England Whalers reany scored in the second period of their game against Ottawa—three goals and a knockdown.

The three goals gave the Whalers a 4-0 lead and they held on for a 4-2 victory Thursday night that kept them tied for first place in the World Hockey Association's East Division with Cleveland, which beat Quebec 3-1.

Notre Dame Players Win MVP Awards

Linebacker Jim O'Malley, a senior from Youngstown, Ohio, and fullback Andy Huff, of Toledo, Ohio, are co-recipients of the Notre Dame Most Valuable Player award for 1972.

The awards were announced Thursday night at the 53rd annual Irish football banquet at South Bend.

O'Malley led the 8-2 Irish in tackles with 122, and Huff was the second leading rusher and led the team in scoring with 10 touchdowns.

Boston Bruins Top St. Louis Kings, 5-0

The hottest team in the National Hockey League is Boston's revitalized Bruins and the hottest stick on the club belongs to winger Mike Walton.

Walton fired two more goals Thursday night, leading the Bruins to a 5-0 victory over St. Louis that stretched Boston's National Hockey League unbeaten streak to 10 games. The Bruins have nine victories and one tie over that stretch and Walton, with 14 goals for the season, has scored 12 in the last 12 games.

Players Association, has reacted with anger to the public disclosure of the status of negotiations between the athletes and the owners.

Meanwhile, Cincinnati and host Miami, a pair of unbeaten, clash in a top Ohio independent game.

In other contests involving major schools, Bowling Green is at Niagara, Ohio University at Northwestern, Michigan at Dayton, Xavier at Houston, Cleveland State at Toledo and Kent State in the Vanderbilt Classic.

The Mid-American has no conference dates Saturday. However, there are two each involving state squads in the Ohio, Hoosier-Buckeye and Presidents Conferences.

Muskingum, with its second Ohio Conference triumph, can deadlock Capital for the early league lead at 2-0. The Muskies need a victory at Mount Union. Kenyon visits Baldwin-Wallace in the OC game.

Defending Presidents champion Hiram makes its league debut at home against Washington and Jefferson while John Carroll travels to Bethany in the PC.

The Hoosier-Buckeye contests send Defiance to Taylor and Bluffton to Findlay.

Elsewhere, Capital is at Ball State, Heidelberg at Aquinaw, Marietta at Urbana, Tiffin at Malone, Oberlin at Carnegie Mellon, Ohio Wesleyan at Ohio Northern, Wittenberg at Akron, Wooster in the Ziel Classic at Oswego, N.Y., Lipscomb at Ashland, Ohio Dominican at Cedarville, Walsh at Rio

Dick Allen AL Slugging Champion

BOSTON (AP) — Dick Allen of the Chicago White Sox added the 1972 American League slugging championship to his home run and runs batted in titles today in official records announced by League President Joe Cronin.

Allen, who tied for third in the batting race with a .308 average, compiled a slugging mark of .603 on 305 total bases in 506 trips to the plate.

Allen is the first player to lead the league in homers, RBI and slugging since 1967, when Boston's Carl Yastrzemski won the Triple Crown and had a slugging percentage of .622.

The White Sox' first baseman had 37 homers, 28 doubles and five triples. He led the league with 99 walks, five more than runnerup Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota.

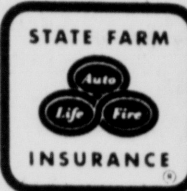

Chicago catcher Ed Herrmann received the most intentional walks, 19. Oakland's Sal Bando received 17 and Allen 16.

Mike Epstein, recently traded by Oakland to Texas, was hit by 11 pitches, leading the league for the second year in a row. Minnesota's Bobby Darwin was the strikeout leader with 145, but finished high among sluggers with .442 on 22 homers, 20 doubles and two triples.

The NFL has a fistful of showdowns in the next-to-last weekend of the regular season. Atop the list are the Minnesota Green Bay and Atlanta-San Francisco matchups in the National Conference.

But, blood will boil no hotter than at Texas Stadium where the world champion Cowboys gnaw at a Redskins team that hijacked Dallas' thunder in the NFC East.

Washington, 1-1, has locked up the division crown to break a six-year grip by Dallas and this one simply means more to the 10-gallon hat boys.

For one thing, Dallas (8-3) can assure itself of the NFC "wild card" spot in the playoffs that open Dec. 23.

Back-to-back prediction weeks of 12-and-1 pumped the season percentage to a happy .764 with 78 right, 24 wrong.

Here are the other 12 calls this week: BROWNS 17, BENGALS 10—Cleveland needs it, if Oakland whips the New York Jets, to tuck away the American Conference "wild card" spot.

Cincinnati dropped their first meeting 27-6 and have the Bengals improved that much?

FORTY-NINERS 28, FALCONS 17—Something about that Atlanta bunch in the big ones. They're so close, but haven't yet proven they can get over the clutch hump.

VIKINGS 17, PACKERS 13—Keeping Green Bay for clinching the NFC Central and pulling Minnesota into a possible three-way deadlock that includes Detroit.

STEELERS 38, OILERS 21—Pittsburgh isn't looking back. Anyway, it doesn't matter which way they're looking against Houston.

DOLPHINS 34, GIANTS 21—Thirteenth straight for unbeaten Miami with a chance Bob Griese may get a late chance to test that mended ankle.

RAMS 17, CARDS 7—Los Angeles has new life in the NFC West and they have to keep pace with the 49er-Falcon winner.

Reshuffled OSU Cagers Meet Missouri

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Fred Taylor, unhappy with the play of his Ohio State basketball team so far, will start burly sophomore forward Bill Andreas against unbeaten Missouri Saturday night.

"We want to try to run and he'll give us more size and strength," Taylor said of the 6-foot-7, 215-pound Andreas. He replaces 6-3 Bob Siekmann at forward.

"We've played about 30 minutes in three games," Taylor said about his squad, 2-1. "We're going through the motions, and we're much too individualistic."

The contest is the feature of a 26-game schedule for Ohio colleges Saturday.

Missouri has ripped by four straight opponents at home, including Purdue 84-75 Wednesday night. John Brown, a 6-7 senior who scored a career high 35 points against the Boilermakers, impresses Taylor.

"For his size," Taylor said of Brown, "he's a real piece of work inside. He's just a super player."

Brown averaged nearly 22 points in leading the Tigers to their best record in history, 21-6, last winter before making the Olympic squad.

A broken foot in practice, however, kept the 220-pound Brown from actually playing in the Olympics.

Ohio State assistant Coach Bob Burkholder saw the Tigers beat Ohio University, recalling, "They're very active, quick and solid."

Four holdover starters are joined in the Missouri lineup by 6-5 forward Felix Jerman, the No. 1 scorer and rebounder on the freshman team a year ago. The veterans are 6-5 forward Al Aberhard, guards Orv Salmon, a 6-

Notre Dame Players
Win MVP Awards

Linebacker Jim O'Malley, a senior from Youngstown, Ohio, and fullback Andy Huff, of Toledo, Ohio, are co-recipients of the Notre Dame Most Valuable Player award for 1972.

The awards were announced Thursday night at the 53rd annual Irish football banquet at South Bend.

O'Malley led the 8-2 Irish in tackles with 122, and Huff was the second leading rusher and led the team in scoring with 10 touchdowns.

Boston Bruins Top
St. Louis Kings, 5-0

The hottest team in the National Hockey League is Boston's revitalized Bruins and the hottest stick on the club belongs to winger Mike Walton.

Walton fired two more goals Thursday night, leading the Bruins to a 5-0 victory over St. Louis that stretched Boston's National Hockey League unbeaten streak to 10 games.

The Bruins have nine victories and one tie over that stretch and Walton, with 14 goals for the season, has scored 12 in the last 12 games.

Indiana U Trustees
Ponder Pont's Fate

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Indiana University trustees met secretly with President John Ryan Thursday night to deliberate the fate of football Coach John Pont, the Indianapolis Star reported today.

Wildcat Juniors
Split Cage Tilts

Laurelville's junior cagers split a pair of contests with Winton County Thursday.

The eighth grade Wildcats won 38-35 after trailing 11-10 at the end of the first quarter, 19-16 at halftime and 29-27 at the conclusion of the third canto. It was a strong rebounding effort in the second half that pulled the game out of the fire.

Eric Maxson tallied 10 points and Terry Holzschuh eight to pace Laurelville. Gill hooped 22 markers for Vinton County. The eighth graders are now 2-0.

Laurelville's seventh grade squad went down, 47-28, to the Vinton cagers. The seventh grade has a 1-1 mark.

Todd Young had nine points and Mark Unger eight to lead Laurelville. Brooks netted 12 for Vinton County.

Both Laurelville squads will return to action Thursday at Stoutsville.

Baseball Players Agent Rips Kuhn

NEW YORK (AP) — Terming Commissioner Bowie Kuhn "a rank amateur," Marvin Miller, executive director of the Major League Baseball

Players Association, has reacted with anger to the public disclosure of the status of negotiations between the athletes and the owners.

Grande and Central State at Tri-State.

In college games Thursday night, Ohio Northern nipped Otterbein in overtime as freshman guard Charlie Just scored 17 points; Central State steamrolled Kenyon 71-55; Wheeling, W. Va., bounced Ohio Dominican 65-43, and Georgetown, Ky., came from behind to trounce Rio Grande 86-69.

Meanwhile, Cincinnati and host Miami, a pair of unbeaten, clash in a top Ohio independent game.

In other contests involving major schools, Bowling Green is at Niagara, Ohio University at Northwestern, Michigan at Dayton, Xavier at Houston, Cleveland State at Toledo and Kent State in the Vanderbilt Classic.

The Mid-American has no conference dates Saturday. However, there are two each involving state squads in the Ohio, Hoosier-Buckeye and Presidents Conferences.

Muskingum, with its second Ohio Conference triumph, can deadlock Capital for the early league lead at 2-0. The Muskies need a victory at Mount Union. Kenyon visits Baldwin-Wallace in the OC game.

Defending Presidents champion Hiram makes its league debut at home against Washington and Jefferson while John Carroll travels to Bethany in the PC.

The Hoosier-Buckeye contests send Defiance to Taylor and Bluffton to Findlay.

Elsewhere, Capital is at Ball State, Heidelberg at Aquinaw, Marietta at Urbana, Tiffin at Malone, Oberlin at Carnegie Mellon, Ohio Wesleyan at Ohio Northern, Wittenberg at Akron, Wooster in the Ziel Classic at Oswego, N.Y., Lipscomb at Ashland, Ohio Dominican at Cedarville, Walsh at Rio

Chicago catcher Ed Hermann received the most intentional walks, 19. Oakland's Sal Bando received 17 and Allen 16.

Mike Epstein, recently traded by Oakland to Texas, was hit by 11 pitches, leading the league for the second year in a row. Minnesota's Bobby Darwin was the strikeout leader with 145, but finished high among sluggers with .442 on 22 homers, 20 doubles and two triples.

McAshan Suspended
By Georgia Tech

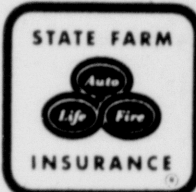

ATLANTA (AP) — Quarterback Eddie McAshan's playing days at Georgia Tech, where he shattered 17 school passing records, are over.

Although Tech still has a Dec. 18 contest at the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn., McAshan will not be making the trip.

Boiler Inspector Test

Declared Not Valid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The executive secretary of the National Board of Boiler and Pressure Vessel Inspectors says his group will not recognize as valid a test given by the state Wednesday for potential field inspectors.

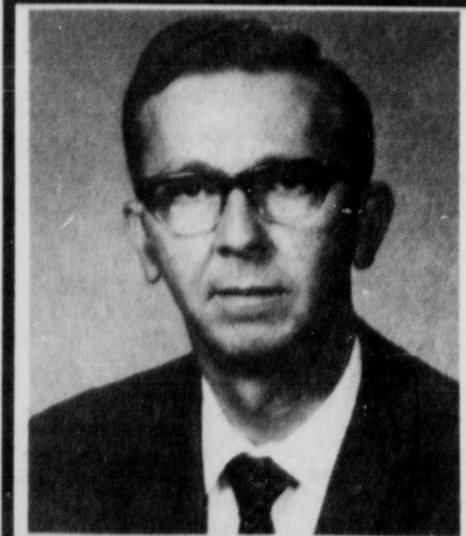

Samuel Harrison said the test could result in unqualified boiler inspectors working in the state. This could mean, he added, that hazardous conditions might go unnoticed in schools, nursing homes and churches, where most of the state inspections take place.

East Liverpool

Policemen End

'Blue Flu' Walkout

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP)—The 31-man East Liverpool police force ended its "blue flu" work stoppage today pending further wage negotiations and a full crew was on duty for the first time in a week.

City Council offered the police Wednesday night an across-the-board increase of $3,075 a year, contingent upon reducing the police force by six members and elimination of overtime pay, the uniform allowance and paid holidays.

Members of Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 29 are to vote on the offer Friday night.

The proposed pay would range from $10,275 a year for patrolmen to $12,603 for the chief. The current range is from $7,200 to $9,528.

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE ISSUANCE OF NOTES IN ANTICIPATION OF THE COLLECTION OF CURRENT REVENUES FOR THE PURPOSE OF FINANCING THE NICHOLAS DRIVE IMPROVEMENT, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE PURCHASE OF PROPERTY CONNECTED WITH THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE NICHOLAS DRIVE IMPROVEMENT, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.
WHEREAS, it is necessary to proceed with the improvement of Nicholas Drive in the City of Circleville and to purchase certain property for the construction of the same; and

WHEREAS, there are insufficient funds to complete said project and it is necessary that notes be issued in anticipation of the collection of current revenues; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CIRCLEVILLE, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. That it is hereby declared necessary to borrow the sum of $50,000.00 against the collection of current revenues for the improvement of Nicholas Drive, the purchase of property to complete said improvement, and to start construction of said improvement.

SECTION 2. That it is necessary to issue, and this Council hereby determines that there shall be issued, notes of said city in anticipation of the collection of such current revenues in the principal amount of $50,000.00. Such anticipatory notes shall bear interest at the rate of 1 per cent per annum, payable six (6) months from date. Such notes shall be dated December 12, 1972, and shall mature six (6) months from date.

SECTION 6. It is hereby determined and recited that all acts, conditions and things necessary to be done, precedent to and in the issuing of said notes in order to make them a legal, valid and binding obligation of the City of Circleville, have happened, been done, and performed in regular and due form and as required by law and that no limitation of indebtedness or taxation, either statutory or institutional, will have been exceeded in the issuance of said notes.

Mulligan, a Navy pilot. "But now I honestly feel the war is going to end by Christmas."

Five weeks ago, when presidential aide Henry A. Kissinger announced that peace was near, Louise and some of the other 21 wives from this coastal Navy town whose husbands are prisoners or missing, reacted with skepticism.

After enduring years of frustration, disappointment, dashed hopes and rearing children alone, most dared not hope.

"Once a cease-fire is signed, I feel every effort will be made to get the prisoners home as soon as possible. There is tremendous hope among the wives now," Mrs. Mulligan said. "Some of us had just been holding back."

Now, many of the wives are preparing for their husbands' return by painting their homes. Some are buying nightgowns.

Year in and year out they have sent Christmas packages to their men. Most have been returned.

This year, Louise has her husband's present whether he celebrates Christmas at home with his family — or has to again spend it in Hanoi.

Brazen Burglar

Proves Fearless

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Whoever broke into Nat S. Bir's service station finally got the guardian as well as the cash.

After a break-in about 10 days ago, Bir accepted an employee's offer of a young Siberian husky for a watchdog. The dog went on duty Tuesday.

Wednesday someone broke in again, taking a car battery, change from a vending machine—and the watchdog.

"I have one to put under the tree, and one ready to be mailed to him. I'm not taking any chances," she added. "Something I just realized," she said. "Jim wasn't here for the first trip to the moon and now they are making their last moon exploration shot and he's still not here. He's missed the whole thing."

No American

Battle Deaths

During Week

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command announced today that no Americans were killed in action in Vietnam last week for the second successive week. But it said three Americans died from non-hostile causes, one was missing or captured and seven were wounded.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported that Vietnamese battlefield deaths were the lowest since the start of North Vietnam's offensive last March 30.

It was the fourth week since mid-September that the U.S. Command reported no Americans killed in action.

The Saigon command reported 336 South Vietnamese soldiers killed, 1,346 wounded and 47 missing in action last week. It claimed 1,247 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong troops were killed.

The allied commands now have reported these total casualties for the war:

Americans — 45,914 killed in action, 10,290 deaths from nonhostile causes, 303,541 wounded in action, 1,706 missing or captured.

South Vietnamese — 160,711 killed, 427,922 wounded.

North Vietnamese and Viet Cong — 912,746 killed.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: That conservative streak that has been present for two days is now past, and most everyone is thinking about current, up-to-date means for putting their ideas in action and achieving greater success. Check newspaper ads for the best available methods of reaching this objective.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Listen carefully to the suggestions which a good friend has for you now and you make big headway where your career is concerned. The social fills your needs for the evening. Dress tastefully.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Sit down and analyze your position in life, in the community, at home, and see what can be done to improve things. Don't put up with faulty appliances; buy new ones. Work them more and yourself less. Be happy.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Some modern systems you start will make those ideas you have useable, so work on such early in a.m. Making new friends can bring you interesting and fascinating, pleasurable hours in the future. Pick and choose well, though.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) A good day to get at those accumulated chores that have to be done sometime and are really important though dull. Look to mate for moral support for your finest ideas. A more courteous attitude is wise, right.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Listen to what a modern-thinking associate has to say since he has the key to greater success in the future. Forget that fixation where ideas are concerned. Reach a truly fine understanding with this person.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) If you listen to what co-workers have to suggest, you come to a far better understanding with them and get more accomplished. Develop the habit of positive decision and action. Being a human weathervane gets you little.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Get into the world of amusement that you have been neglecting for some time and have a delightful day, p.m. A thoughtful gift to mate would be a good idea. Be with charmers you really like.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Kin have excellent ideas for improving your home, so go along with them instead of being so stubborn. A good plan can be made for having more success in the future. Think along much more practical lines.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Find a more modern system for handling all your correspondence, travel, communications matters. Talk maternal affairs over with associates, then carry through along very practical lines. Evening is fine for social activities.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Busy yourself either improving or making plans to improve any property you may own. Make sure your budget is being kept properly. Make changes in it that will give you more spending money.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You have fine ideas that can make a big impression on others and gain you their support now. Get out to social affairs to which you are invited. Make just the right impact on others.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You have fine original ideas now but need more study and data concerning them, so talk to experts who can help. The future can be more prosperous if you handle secret duties well. Avoid one who simply wants to gossip.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those delightful youths who likes people and would do well upon reaching maturity to engage in work that means seeing them every day and working with them in some capacity, such as in personnel work, charitable or artistic work, in government circles, etc., so be sure to slant education along lines to fit your fine youngster for just such type profession. Give sports and religious training that is helpful early.

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Marks is a veteran songwriter who, like many veteran songwriters, maintains an office in the Brill Building on Broadway here. He's unique in two ways.

One is that he had the upright piano in his office tuned three months ago. It violated a law that says no songwriter in the Brill Building shall have a tuned piano, upright or otherwise.

The second unique item is that he's the guy who wrote "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer," a song that, since 1949, has been the national anthem at Christmastime. It also was used as the basis for a one-hour NBC television special in 1963. The special is making its ninth consecutive yuletide appearance on television tonight, but on the CBS network.

Marks can retire on the "Rudolph" royalties if he wants to, but he still writes songs and goes out every December with a press agent to plug the "Rudolph" television special.

A tall, grumpy man with a neatly trimmed white beard, Marks doesn't fit the popular image of a Broadway tunesmith. He talks slowly, is on the board of trustees of his alma mater, Colgate University and has a Phi Beta Kappa key.

He comes from a fairly well-to-do family in Mount Vernon, N.Y., and got the songwriting bug when he was 11. It still was with him after college. It caused his parents no end of worry.

"My mother thought it was a horrible thing for anybody to do," he said.

Marks, 63, became a successful songwriter the traditional way. He pounded pianos in cocktail lounges by night and publishers' doors by day.

His first big hit, "Address Unknown," came in 1940 when the Ink Spots recorded it. It enabled him to become a full-time songwriter and, ultimately, an extremely wealthy man when he thought of a red-nosed reindeer.

And the song about Rudolph almost never came to be. "I wrote it once in 1948, but it was no good," he said. "I didn't like it. I just forgot about it. In late January in '49, I started on it again, and that was accidental."
